1792 James Chester Incoming letters 1794

SIDE ONE

Dorchy 3. 1792.

Dr Sir.

The Chancellor has ordered me to lodge the bonds arising from the Sale of Saml Dorsey's Estate. in the Chancery Office. as on Examination of the Decree, the Nett proceeds are subject to his future Order therein. — Under a Persuasion, that you will have no Objection, to abide by the Chanc.rs Determination, I shall be glad. if you'll deposit the bonds in the Chy Office. with the Register, by first Opportunity — The Testimony in Spriggs Case will be completed next Month & returned

(to)

R. Ridgely. July 3. 1792

James Chester Esquire
Recd. Lives

Confs.
No letter from Philadelphia.
B.G.