1792 James Cheston : Incoming letters

SIDE ONE

Eliza Randolph Junr
18th February 92

James Cheston Esqr

Bristol 18th Feby 1792

My Dear Sir

Ill able as I am at present to address myself to any friend, but where necessity oblige me, which being the present case your goodness I am convinced will excuse the brevity of this —

Agreeable to your request addressd to Mr Richard Pinckney I here with send you every instrument that can possibly be necessary to indemnify all Parties — I am much obliged to you my good Sir by your kind assurance of attention to the affairs under your Care, and hope it will be in your Power to wind them up in a short time, to you I must look up, and I can with truth assure you I have repeatedly wish'd all my affairs were in the hands of Men I had an equal opinion of, but (Alas)