WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1905.

The Maryland Electoral College met at Annapolis on Monday and went through the formality of casting the vote of the State for President and Vice-President of the United States. For the first time in the history of the State, we believe, the college was divided, Roosevelt and Fairbanks receiving one vote—that of Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte—and the other seven going to Parker and Davis. Much pleasant badinage passed between the one lone Republican and his Democratic companions in the college, but, practically, Mr. Bonaparte had the best of it, as he was on the winning side in the contest and his vote went to swell the great majority of the candidates for whom he cast it.

Hon. Lloyd Lowndes,
Deceased—Ex-Gov. of Maryland.

EX-GOV. LLOYD LOWNDES DIES SUDDENLY, AT HIS HOME IN CUMBERLAND.

Ex-Gov. Lloyd Lowndes died very suddenly, on Sunday morning last, at his home in Cumberland, presumably of enlargement and valvular disease of the heart, which, according to one account, caused the rupture of a blood vessel in the brain. Death was instantaneous. He had just taken a bath and was being rubbed by his colored valet in the bathroom, when he suddenly fell forward and expired. He was not feeling well and had slept badly. Mrs. Lowndes heard the noise of his fall and hastened to the bathroom only to find her husband a corpse.

Gov. Lowndes occupied a prominent place in business and political circles. He was connected with many extensive business enterprises, in all of which he had exhibited skill and ability of a high order. Starting in life with a comfortable patrimony he managed his affairs so successfully as to acquire a large fortune. He was also successful in a political sense, having been elected to Congress in 1872, when quite a young man, and, 23 years later, Governor of the State, giving him the distinction of having been the only Republican who has held that high office since the Civil War. He was a candidate for re-election in 1899, but was defeated by Hon. John Walter Smith, to the great detriment of the political interests of the State.

During his administration Governor Lowndes was very zealous and earnest in urging and promoting the enactment of laws for the purpose of carrying into effect the reforms pledged by his party during the campaign preceding his election, and was largely instrumental in preventing any failure whatever in the redemption of those pledges. The fair elections which followed and were maintained until the passage of the present trick ballot law, were results of this legislation, as were the general assessment and other measures that need not be recounted. These results made his administration the most worthy that has marked the history of the State for more than thirty years.

Gov. Lowndes was about 60 years old. He is survived by his wife (Mrs. G. Elizabeth T. Lowndes), his brother, (Richard T. Lowndes, of Clarksburg, W. Va.), five sons (Lloyd Lowndes, of Cumberland; Richard T. Lowndes, of Clarksburg, W. Va.; Chas. T. Lowndes, of Colorado Spridgs, Col.; W. Bladen Lowndes, superintendent of the Union Mining Company plant at Mount Savage, Md.; Tasker G. Lowndes, Cumberland), one daughter (Miss Elizabeth Lloyd Lowndes, Cumberland) and three grandchildren (Richard T. Lowndes, Jr., Lloyd Lowndes, the third, and W. Bladen Lowndes Jr.)

The funeral of Gov. Lowndes took place on Wednesday morning at Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Cumberland, of the vestry of which he was senior warden. During the services the schools of Cumberland and many business houses of the place were closed and the obsequies were attended by a large concourse of people, among whom were many from a distance, including Gov. Edwin Warfield, Bishop Paret, S. A. Williams, Judge H. M. Clabaugh, Hon. George R. Gaither and many others. The floral tributes were so many that they were taken from the house by wagonloads. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, assisted by Rev. Frederick B. Howden, of Georgetown, D. C., and Rev. Edwin Barnes Niver, of Baltimore. The pall-bearers were:

Honorary—Gov. Edwin Warfield, W. H. Dawson, of Baltimore; J. T. Woodward, of New York; James Cecil, of Chillicothe, Ohio, father-in-law of Lloyd Lowndes, Jr.; Judge Nathan Goff, of Clarksburg, W. Va.; Hon. John V. L. Findlay, of Baltimore; John Wirt Randall, of Annapolis, and Judge Robert B. Henderson and Daniel Annan, of Cumberland.

Active—Patrick H. Daugherty, D. James Blackiston and Roderic Clary, of the vestry of Emmanuel Church; James Clark, Chief Judge A. Hunter Boyd, Carlton L. Bretz, David Davidson and Dr. Richard Gerstell.

Chief Judge James McSherry, of the Maryland Court of Appeals, and ex-Postmaster-General James A. Gary, who were to have been among the honorary pallbearers, were unable to attend.

'SQUIRE GARLAND INDICTED.

'Squire "Bill" Garland, who piloted a hundred foreigners to this city last fall, for the purpose of having them naturalized and converted into Democratic voters, has been indicted by the United States Grand Jury in Baltimore for perjury. The presentment reads as follows: "That William J. Garland, in a proceeding for naturalization of Jacob Kogel, before the Circuit Court for Carroll County, was duly sworn before said court on October 7, 1904, at Westminster, Md., and did wilfully, falsely and corruptly depose and swear that Kogel had resided within the United States three years next preceding his arriving at the age of 21 years, and had continued to reside within the United States for a continued term of five years at least, and within the State of Maryland for one year at least, whereas in truth and in fact the said William J. Garland did not know whether or not Kogel had resided within the United States three years next preceding his arriving at the age of 21 years, and whether or not he had continued to reside therein, or whether or not he had resided within the United States for five years, or in the State of Maryland for one year at least."

Garland gave bail in the sum of $2,500 and was released from custody until wanted for trial.

Ten inches of snow fell at Memphis, Tenn., on Monday.

The new Western Maryland Railroad depot at Glyndon, which was erected on the site of the one destroyed by fire a little over a year ago, has been completed, and is now occupied. While not as handsome as the building destroyed, the new depot is well constructed of red brick, with brown sandstone trimmings, and presents a good appearance. The building is heated with hot water. The arrangement of waiting-rooms and office is practically the same as in the former depot, but a large driveway is an added convenience. The building cost about $7,000. Mr. C. F. Johnson was the contractor.

By agreement the appeal of the Western Maryland Railroad Company against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, in relation to the latter's alleged violation of the contract to deliver freight to the former, at Cherry Run, has been dismissed by the Court of Appeals, an amicable adjustment of the controversy having been reached.

President Ramsey, of the Wabash Railroad, is quoted as saying, in substance, that the connecting line between the Western Maryland Railroad at Cherry Run and the West Virginia Central at Cumberland, will be completed by October next and coal from the latter road will then be shipped to tidewater at Baltimore.

Another mad dog raided Gettysburg, Pa., last Saturday night and bit many of the best dogs in the town, all of which were subsequently killed. The rabid animal belonged to a colored man residing on the Taneytown road, near Gettysburg.

Rev. I. C. Burke, pastor of the Third English Lutheran Church, Baltimore, is bequeathed $100 by the will of Annie Maria Flemming, filed for probate in the Orphans' Court of that city on Thursday.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The Geo. Primrose Big Minstrel Company which comes to the Academy of Music, Baltimore, Md., have an organization that is as nearly perfect in all that pertains to lofty entertainment qualities as expense, experience and brains can evolve. The one new act of Mr. Primrose alone is said to be the best this famous minstrel has ever had. It is entitled "The Cotton Blossom Coons"; is in two beautiful scenes. The first is a representation of a negro cabin with its tangled growth of wild flowers resting under the protecting shadows of the spreading oak; the second is a fascination view of a cotton field in bud and bloom, with hill and river environments. These are seen at sunrise and sunset and night with a radiance of the moon bathing them in tranquil light.
