Mr. Alexander S. Little, a venerable retired farmer, of Frizellburg, met with quite a serious accident, a few days ago. He was about to descend the stairway from the second story of an outbuilding, when he lost his balance and fell to the floor below, a distance of nine feet, dislocating his collarbone on the left side, fracturing two ribs and bruising his body badly. Mr. Little is in his 83rd year but is bearing his serious injuries very well and there is a prospect of his recovery, though he suffers severe pain. He is attended by Dr. L. Kemp, of Uniontown.

On Monday evening, 23rd inst., the members of Crusade Commandery No. 5, Knights Templar, of Baltimore, will make a pilgrimage to this city in full uniform, for the purpose of visiting their brother, Sir Knight Oscar D. Gilbert, the only member of that commandery residing here. They will give a banquet at the Hotel Westminster, during the evening, at which Mayor Gilbert will be the guest of honor, and to which other citizens have been invited. They will arrive on the 6.03 P. M. train and be received by the Knights Templar of this city, and invited guests. Headed by the 1st Regiment Band they will parade on Main street.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company has made a contract with the Southern Maryland Company by which the lines of these companies will be connected at Brandywine, in Prince George's county. This also gives the C. & P. connection with the lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, through the exchange at Upper Marlboro. The Southern Maryland has agreed to use the instruments and apparatus of the C. and P., and thus virtually becomes a part of that company's system. The S. M. has exchanges at Leonardtown, Mechanicsville and Charlotte Hall and the lines are to be extended to LaPlata, Brandywine, Port Lookout and other points.

Hon. James Revell, Associate Judge of the Fifth Judicial District, was stricken with paralysis, at his home in Annapolis, on Wednesday morning, and for a time his condition was alarming. Later, however, he rallied and became much better. Judge Revell has made many friends in this county by his urbanity and genial, kindly disposition, who will be grieved to hear of his illness. He is 74 years old and has been on the bench twelve years. His first public service was as private secretary to Gov. Ligon. While filling that office he was elected State's Attorney of Anne Arundel county and was repeatedly re-elected, serving 17 years and gaining the reputation of one of the ablest and best prosecuting officers in the State. His service on the bench has been eminently satisfactory.

Calendars.

The SENTINEL has received calendars for 1905 from the following sources during the past week:

From the Union National Bank of Westminster a small one but prettily illustrated with picture of "After the Chase;" from Johnson & Co., paper dealers, of Harrisburg, Pa.; The Gregg Carriage Co., of Philadelphia, Frank W. Shriver treasurer; Jos. Baumiller, oyster packer, Baltimore. All these calendars are handsomely illustrated. From Mr. James E. Smith, insurance agent of this city, we have calendars and blotter, issued by the Pennsylvania Fire, of Philadelphia; the Fire Association of Philadelphia; The Glen's Falls Fire Insurance Company, of Glen's Falls, N. Y., and the Hanover Fire Insurance Company of New York. The calendars issued by these companies are all large and convenient.

Election of Bank Directors.

The several National Banks of this county elected directors on Tuesday, as follows: First National Bank of West- [redacted] Farmers and Mechanics' National Bank of Westminster, Wm. B. Thomas, David Stoner, William A. Cunningham, J. Wesley Biggs, Hon. Jas. A. C. Bond, Frank C. Sharrer, George P. Panebaker, Wm. Y. Frizzell. Mr. Thomas was reelected president of the bank and Ex-Judge Bond vice-president.

An Enjoyable Function.

Westminster homes are celebrated for their hospitality and the generous and elegant manner in which guests are entertained, but notwithstanding this fact it is doubtful whether any function in the place has ever surpassed in this respect a dinner given on Saturday, 31st ult., by Mr. Wm. B. Thomas, president of the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank, to his fellow-directors and officers of that flourishing institution, at his beautiful and spacious home on East Main street. It goes without saying that the success of the event was due to the management of Mr. Thomas's good wife, who was indefatigable in her efforts to render all the guests at ease and to provide the most tempting menu. The dinner was served in courses of roast oysters, roast turkey, various vegetables, entrees, deserts, eggnog and coffee, winding up with cigars of superior quality. So tempting were the viands and so genial and agreeable the associations that host and guests lingered at the table for a couple of hours. As they were about to retire the guests with great earnestness expressed the wish that host and hostess might enjoy a happy New Year and that the bank of which Mr. Thomas is the presiding officer may continue to grow in prosperity, in time to come, as it has under its present management in the past.

Finksburg Items.

The members and friends of the Finksburg Methodist Protestant Church gave their pastor a very substantial pounding on the afternoon of Jan. 5th. They began to assemble at the parsonage shortly after noon, and kept pouring in until almost three o'clock. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in a social way. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Church held its annual election of officers, the pastor opening the meeting with scripture reading and prayer. About four o'clock the people departed, leaving the parsonage larder well filled, the granary replenished and the inmates of the parsonage quite happy on account of the visit.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Miss Martha A. Uhler.

Miss Martha A. Uhler, who formerly resided near Patapsco, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Shilling, in Baltimore, on Friday last, at the age of about 77 years. Another sister—Mrs. Jacob M. Hoff—and two brothers—Messrs. William and John Uhler, of Woolery's district—survive her. Funeral services were held at Sandy Mount M. P. Church, Sunday afternoon, after which her remains were interred in the church burial ground.

Mrs. Eleanor Warfield.

Mrs. Eleanor Warfield, widow of the late Nicholas Ridgely Warfield, died last Saturday at the residence of Wm. Gaither, near Florence, Howard county, at the advanced age of nearly 93 years. Her husband was a half-brother of Albert G. Warfield, the father of Gov. Edwin Warfield. Mrs. Warfield had a wonderful memory, and often spoke of General Lafayette, passing through Lisbon to Annapolis in 1824. She was for many years a devout member and communicant of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Mrs. Harriet Sayler.

Mrs. Harriet Saylor, widow of the late Solomon Sayler, was fatally burned at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Daniel Wolfe, near Union Bridge, on the 29th ult., her clothing having taken fire from an overheated stove, by which she was standing, and died on the following Monday evening, 2nd inst., in her seventy-sixth year. Her husband died about a year ago. She leaves the following children: Mr. D. Oliver Sayler, of Johnsville; Mrs Daniel Wolfe, Mrs. Edgar Wolfe and Mrs. Daniel Leakins.

Peter Bowman.

Mr. Peter Bowman, a veteran of the Civil War, died at his home at Tannery, at an early hour this morning, after a long illness, of Bright's disease. He served as a private in Co. C, Second Regiment, Maryland Cavalry, and was honorably discharged at the close of the war, having been a true and valiant soldier. He was a member of Burns Post, G. A. R., of this city. He leaves a widow and six children—two sons and four daughters—all adults. He was a son of the late John Bowman, near this city. Funeral services will be held at his late residence at 3 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, and his remains will be interred in the Holmes burial ground, near Reese.

Mrs. Clara Wantz.

Mrs. Clara Wantz, wife of Mr. Robt. Wantz, died yesterday afternoon, at her home, near Pleasant Valley, of pneumonia, in her 41st year. Her husband, one son and one daughter survive her. She was a daughter of Mr. J. Michael Frock, near Pleasant Valley, who, without having been informed of her death, was taken violently ill with nervous prostration shortly after she passed away. Mrs. Wantz was a member of the Reformed Church at Pleasant Valley, where her remains will interred on Monday morning, after funeral services in the church, conducted by Rev. J. B. Stonesifer, assisted by Rev. Mr. D. H. Newcomer. The meeting at the house will be at 10 o'clock.

Miss Hannah E. Gallaway.

Miss Hannah E. Gallaway, aged 68 years, near Finksburg, dropped dead last Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock in front of 1017 West Lanvale street, Baltimore. Miss Gallaway had been at service at Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, and in company with her niece, Mrs. M. O. Miller, 1303 Myrtle avenue, was on her way to Mrs. Miller's house when her sudden demise occurred. Miss Gallaway, although having been paralyzed sometime ago, was in apparently good health and sang at the church service. After leaving the church she was laughing and chatting with Mrs. Miller, when she complained that her limbs were becoming cold and suddenly dropped and expired immediately. She was a native of Baltimore, but had resided near Finksburg during the past three years.

Wm. Miller.

Mr. Wm. Miller, for many years a widely known and prominent farmer of Woolery's district, died yesterday afternoon at his home near Sandyville, at the age of 79 years, 6 months, 1 day. Mr. Miller was a member of Grace Lutheran Church, this city, and of Salem Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Charity Lodge, K. of P. Politically he was, throughout his long life, a decided Democrat, having been a man of very strong convictions. He leaves a widow, three sons and five daughters—Messrs. Geo. A., Frank W., and Harry M. Miller, Mrs. Wm. Bush, Mrs. Dennis A. Smith, Mrs. Wm. C. Benson, Mrs. Bradley T. Hering and Miss Cordelia Miller. One of the sons, Mr. George A. Miller, is the widely known and efficient chief deputy of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for this county. Funeral services will be held at the house at 1.30 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, after which the remains will be interred in Westminster Cemetery. The funeral rites of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias will be conducted at the obsequies and members of those orders will be the pall-bearers.

Joseph Geiger.

A letter received by the SENTINEL, on Tuesday, from Mr. H. E. MacNichol, city editor of the New York Evening Journal, conveyed the information that Joseph Geiger, a native of Wakefield Valley, died at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 2nd inst. Mr. Geiger was a son of the late Josiah Geiger, a former well known resident of Wakefield Valley, and was in his 42nd year. His father was twice married and he was a son of the first wife, who was Miss Deborah Cassell, a sister of the Misses Cassell, of this city. The late John Geiger of New Windsor, was his uncle and on both the paternal and maternal side he had numerous relatives in this county. He had been for many years in New York, to which city his father removed from this county. He was employed in a clerical capacity of some sort with a brokerage house on Wall street. His father's second wife, we are informed, is living in Mechanicsburg, Pa., with her son, Wilbert Geiger.

Mrs. Rebecca Brown.

Mrs. Rebecca Brown, wife of Mr. John T. Brown, of this city, died at her home on West Main street, shortly before seven o'clock, last Friday evening, after a long and painful illness, of cancer, aged about 58 years. Her sufferings were great but were borne with christian fortitude and patience. Mrs. Brown was a well known and highly respected lady. She was one of the original members and founders of St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city, and was devoted to its interests and zealous for its prosperity through all the intervening years to the end of her life. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, for her many virtues and pure christian life. Her husband, an only daughter—the wife of Dr. Charles R. Foutz, of this city—and two grandchildren survive her. She was a daughter of the late Samuel Unger and a sister of Mr. Jesse Unger, of Baltimore; Mrs. Caroline Nusbaum, of this city, and Mrs. Jane Leister, of Sandyville. Funeral services, conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. S. Slagle, were held at the house on Monday afternoon, after which the remains were interred in Benjamin's Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. B. Thomas, Oscar D. Gilbert, E. D. Whitmore, W. H. H. Zepp, J. Wesley Steele, J. Hoffman Fuss. A large number of relatives and friends attended the obsequies. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

For the Sentinel.

Miss Catharine Copenhaver.

Miss Catharine Copenhaver, one of the oldest residents of this city, died on Sunday last, 8th inst., at the Aged Peoples' Home of the Methodist Protestant Church, East Main street, of which she had been an inmate ever since it was opened, July 1st, 1895.

"Aunt Kittie," as she was familiarly known, was the daughter of Wm. and Anna Hann Copenhaver, and was born near Uniontown, Nov. 25th, 1816. She was for many years in the family of Dr. J. L. Billingslea, first as nurse, and later as housekeeper. Afterward she was with Mr. Jno. L. Reifsnider, Sr., and Dr. Jas. H. Billingslea in the same capacity. So faithful was she in her service that she was most highly esteemed by each member of these families, and was regarded as a valuable friend by all of them. She was a devout and zealous member of the Westminster M. P. Church for over sixty years and was never absent from its service as long as she was able to attend. Her illness was long and very trying but she never complained. She was carefully nursed, and kind friends ministered to her during her long illness. She loved the "Home," and was very happy there in her extreme age. Its establishment seemed to come as an answer to her prayer, and now we sincerely believe her last prayer is answered, and she has been taken "Home to Glory" by the "Angel of Death." The funeral was held at the "Church Home," on Tuesday, and was largely attended. Services were conducted by Rev. L. F. Warner, her pastor, assisted by Rev. H. C. Cushing, D. D., and Rev. Wm. A. Crouse. The pall-bearers were Dr. J. W. Hering and Messrs. E. O. Grimes, T. W. Mather, M. L. Lantz, F. K. Herr, and Jesse F. Shreeve.

Rev. E. J. Wolf., D. D.

Rev. Edmund J. Wolf, D. D., professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History and New Testament Exegesis, at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Pa., died at his home on Seminary Ridge, in that place, on Tuesday, aged 64 years, 1 month, 2 days. Dr. Wolf was a native of Rebersburg, Pa. He was educated at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, and took a course in theology in the Seminary at that place and at the Universities of Tubingen and Erlanger, Germany. For two years he was pastor of a church in Northumberland county, Pa., and for six years of the Second Lutheran Church, Lombard street, Baltimore. He was then elected to the professorship in the seminary at Gettysburg, which he held until his death, a period of about 31 years. In 1865 he married Miss Ella Kemp, of Baltimore county, Md., who survives him, with three children—Mrs. Huber Grey Buehler, of Lakeville, Conn.; Mrs. Warren Hoysradt, of Bronxville, N. Y., and Robbin B. Wolf, of Pittsburg, Pa.

At the last meeting of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, Dr. Wolf was elected its president. He was a man of marked ability and profound scholarship. Among his publications are: The Christian Church (Translated), Quarterly Review, XX. 418. Practical Exposition of Scripture (Translated). Lutheran Quarterly, 11. 179. The Retreat of Science on the Antiquity of Human Race (Translated), Ib., III, 450. Value of Ecclesiastical History to the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Inaugural Address, Ib., IV, 419. Article on Lutheran Church in America, for translation of new edition of Herzog's Encyclopedia. Holman Lecture on Art. XVI of Augsburg Confession, 1882, Lutheran Quarterly, VII. In addition to the above Dr. Wolf was a frequent contributor to various religious periodicals.

His funeral took place at Christ Lutheran Church, Gettysburg, this afternoon.

An Exciting Chase.

On Wednesday Charles and Levi Miller, who, for sometime past, have been residing near this city, and who came here from the neighborhood of Gettysburg, Pa., had a hearing before Justice G. W. Crapster and were committed to jail for the action of the grand jury on the charge of chicken-stealing. They had been arrested by Constable Elias N. Davis and were in his custody. Their aged mother was with them and they turned from the officer to bid her goodbye. Seeing an opportunity to escape at this juncture they ran out the alley from Main street to the fields back of Green street, with Constable Davis and a number of citizens in hot pursuit. They finally reached the yard at Judge Eckenrode's carriage shops, on George street, where they were headed off by the judge's employees and turned back to Liberty street, where they encountered Officer Jerome, who took them into custody and they were at last safely landed in the county jail. Constable Davis in pursuing them fired several shots from his revolver, one of which passed through the hat of one of the men. The Millers are brothers. They have been selling dressed chickens which they are [redacted] harged with having stolen. Levi Miller has been giving his name as Brown, and denied his relationship to harles Miller.

An Enjoyable Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Bowman, near Silver Run, on Friday, December 30, 1904, was the scene of a most enjoyable party. At about 7.30 o'clock the guests arrived and took complete control of the house. Various social games were indulged in until about 9.30, when all were invited to the dining room, where a table, loaded with the various delicacies of the season, awaited them, to which all did ample justice. After supper games were again resorted to. About midnight the party, expressing themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening, bade their host and hostess good night and returned to their respective homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Bowman, Misses Mollye Brown, Bertha Dotterer, Myrtle Koontz, Lois Dotterer, Rosa Knipple, Elsie Knipple, Mabel Dutterer, Effye Koontz, Mollye Messinger, Annie Groft, Jennie Baily, Mollye Koontz, Jennie Cover, Carrye Koontz, Belle Hollinger, Maud Hollinger, Bertie Koontz, Dottye Crabbs, Messrs. Uniontown Items.

On Wednesday morning, about three o'clock, Mr. Ephraim Row, who had been sick about ten days with pneumonia, died in his seventy-eighth year. He was formerly of Bark Hill, one of a family of several children, and the last of the family. He was well known through the county, as one of several brothers who were first-class post and rail fence makers and very popular along that line of mechanics. He was a member from his youth of the Church of God, for which he lived and talked. His second wife, formerly Mrs. Annie Kolb, survives him, and four children—Mrs. Oliver Angel, Mrs. Mary Selby, Mrs. Ezra McGee, all of Bark Hill, and Mr. Jacob K. Row, of Illinois. Funeral services were held on Thursday morning in the church of God; interment in Hill Cemetery by the side of his wife. The services were conducted by Revs. Murray and C. L. Crawford. Miss Lizzie Trump entertained the members of the 1904 Sewing Society on Thursday evening. Refreshments were served in abundance.

Mr. A. E. B. Myers was called to the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Frank Cofiel, at Arcadia, on Saturday morning, where his father, Mr. Philip Myers, had died during the night at the age of 74 years and 3 months. His remains were laid away to rest on Sunday in the St. Paul cemetery, Arcadia, Rev. S. J. Derr officiating. Mr. M. was a kind, genial gentleman and held the respect of a large circle of friends who attended his funeral. He was well known here from his frequent visits to his son. About 15 years ago he was a carrier of the mails from Arcadia to the N. C. R. R. During one of his trips the mule he was driving took fright, ran away, upset the cart and threw Mr. M. with such force to the ground as to break his ankle and collarbone and dislocate his shoulder, so maiming him that he never fully recovered and had difficulty in walking even with a cane.

Mrs. E. W. Fuhrman passed the 80th milestone of her pilgrimage on Thursday, 5th inst., and was made glad to have with her in the celebration of the event Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fuhrman, of Paris Ky.; Mrs. George Hoffacker, of Hobart, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leber, Miss Helen Jaeger, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Fuhrman, of Greenmount. Mr. and Mrs. John Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fuhrman, of Hanover, and Mr. H. A. Myers, of Baltimore, added their congratulations in a family reunion on Sunday. Mrs. Fuhrman is enjoying good health.

Mrs. Wilhelm, of Hanover, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. J. F. B. Weaver, who has been ill from nervous trouble for a week or more, but who at this writing is somewhat improved.

Mrs. John Wink had the misfortune to fall from her bed early on Tuesday morning and so injured her hip that it is thought she may not be again able to use the limb. She is in her 85th year and has been feeble for some time.

Miss Sarah Colliflower was a guest of her friend, Mrs. D. L. Dubbs, during Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Everhart have returned home after spending the holidays with friends in Frederick.

Carrollton Items.

Revival services were begun in Union Bethel Church of God on Sunday night week and will continue for sometime. At the first service the new pastor preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. Lee Martin, a former resident of this vicinity but now a motorman on the Edmondson Avenue Electric Cars, Baltimore, paid a visit to his old neighborhood on Saturday before New Year.

There was a shooting match at Carrollton Station on second Christmas day, which was continued on the 2nd day of the New Year. There was a large attendance of young men as well as the older ones who engaged in the sport, some of them winning turkeys, ducks geese and chickens. Among those present who fired shots were Clarence Lovell, who was master of the day; Cleve Neudecker, Robert Lovell, William Shaffer, James Walsh, Amon J. Taylor, George and Charles Walsh, Clark Taylor, Wm. Tawney, George Kress, Ezra Evans, Carroll Taylor. Mr. John H. Taylor was the oldest man engaged in the sport and carried off several prizes.

A pound party was given on Friday night, Dec. 30, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Peeling, in honor of their daughter, Miss Berkeley, and Mr. Monroe Taylor, at which there was a big turnout of young people and some older ones. At eleven o'clock a nice spread out was partaken of, after which all repaired to their homes well pleased with the enjoyable event. Those present were: Mr. James Peeling and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Barnes, Mr. Barton Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Knight, Misses Lydia Wampler, Matilda Evans, Aggie Walsh, Grace Osborn, Bessie Gormley, Annie Myers, Winnie and Lenora Barrick, Ida and Beulah Raver, Rosa, Lula and Ida Tracey, Annie Moss, Netta Snyder, Jennie and Sadie Taylor, Mamie Beam, Carrie and Emma Miller, Nettie and Ray Allgire, Catherine and May Sullivan, Daisy and Etta Green, Eliza Blizzard, Mamie and Annie Stocksdale, Berkeley, Edna, Alice and Nellie Peeling, Hollice Taylor, Messrs. Taylor, Joseph A. Walsh, William R. Arnold, Albert C. Bossom, Harry T. Miller, William C. Troyer, Clyde G. Green, Wm. D. Miller, George Arnold.

Mr. Robert Rill spent an evening recently with Mr. John Basler.

Miss Ely Martin is preparing to cut timber to build a new barn in the early spring.

Revival services are still going on at Union Bethel Church of God with much interest prevailing at every meeting.

The county road from Wesley toward Carrollton Station is very slippery and dangerous for horses unless rough-shod. Our road commissioner, Mr. Benj. Croft, assisted by Jerry Blizzard, with four horses and a big sled did the traveling people a benefit by opening the blockades of drifted snow along the road.

A Musical.

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Hook, of Westminster district, New Year's evening. The occasion was a musical, given in honor of Mrs. Lewis Barnes, of Baltimore, and Mr. James Hook, of White Hall, Pa. The guests arrived at 7.30 P. M. They all assembled in the parlor and enjoyed the evening in social conversation and instrumental music. At 10.30 all were invited to the dining room where the table, decorated with eve green, white and pink carnations, made a very pleasing effect, and was loaded with all the delicacies of the Christmas season, which were served in abundance. After partaking of the good things all bade their host and hostess good night and, wishing them a happy New Year, returned to their respective homes. The occasion was one of rare pleasure to all concerned. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Hook, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allison, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hook, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Stouch, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Coppersmith, Mrs. Mary S. A. Beaver; Mrs. Lewis Barnes, of Baltimore; Misses Julia A.
