1792 James Chalmers

SIDE ONE

Bristol Octr 12th 1792

Dear Sir

Your favor of the 18th June came duly to hand covering Bills, an acknowledgment whereof you have fully from Mr Pinckney, I am at present very unwell which must plead the shortness of this, which serves merely to desire that when a remittance is made it may be to myself, as the most certain means of my receiving such immediately, as a few days loss on Bills is worth observance, for should you enclose such to R.P. and he might happen to be out of town for eight or ten days I should be a sufferer thereby — therefore I conceive when you reply to him (who has the sole management of my affairs) it would be best to enclose his letter in mine — and I beg to observe that your favor of the above date was
