Dr. Sir

I lose no time in answering your favor of the 31. March, received by last post. Charles & Nathaniel Ricketts's bond never was in my hands the only paper I ever had, is an assignment of which the following is a copy –

I hereby assign unto Mr. James Charton for value of him received, all my right title & interest, to a Judgment I have obtained against Charles & Nathaniel Ricketts, on a bond assigned to me by Robert Anderson as by the bond will appear. As Witness my hand this 10. day of August 1791. Thos. Smyth –

I brought a Sci. fa. for your use, on this Judgment, for payment, to October 1792 – At the time of issuing this Sci. fa, I searched the office, to know when the original Judgment was obtained, & it appears by my memorandum (indorsed on the assignment) that Natl. Ricketts confessed judgment at October Term 1790, with Stay of Execution, till 1. Nov. 1791. and
