1795 James Cheston

SIDE TWO

that Mr. Hands had the bond – this, I make no doubt is the case, as Mr. Hands was Mr. Smyth's attorney – In settling this debt, you will recollect that you are entitled to receive the costs both of the original action, & of the scire facias –

I am Dr. Sir,
Yr. most ob. Serv.
W. Seighman.

Philad.a
April 3. 1795.

On second thoughts I have concluded it best to send the assignment, as you may want it when you settle the debt, you have it inclosed
