n.d. James Chester [redacted] Francis Augusta [redacted]

Spencer handed me Your Letter of Sept.r 14.th Feb.y last, and now gives again me again the Opportunity of acknowledging it, which I do with the more pleasure as it tells me You were perfectly well and reasonably happy; at least it does not contradict the last, and therefore as it is my Wish, I take it for granted it was really the case; that it what an addition it would be to my happiness if yours and all those whom I value depended on My Wish! I wish only [redacted] time should be spent than was necessary in the forming it, and even that would appear almost too much. I suppose you, several months before this removed to a Habitation in Queens Square, and as You seem to think of some Situation did not Answer the end you proposed by it. I dare say [redacted] present you have taken care of. [illegible] such [illegible] that
