SIDE TWO

of my poor Sir?. and yet I know no one that deserves more to be happy. Doc.r Davison had been two Days with them. we have no particular account of his situation in the last Letters, we are referd to one wrote to Doc.r Scott which the Doc.r omitted sending us, Papa intends to Annapolis this Evening in order to be ready to cross the Bay with the Doc.r as soon as a boat can cross, it is at preasent impossible Parcavon went out this morning and was obliged to return it blows a Storm and a head. Our dear little family are all well excep.t little Fan has a slight crick in her neck. they desire their love to you. I shall take the chance of your geting this from Annapolis should you get it I make no doubt it will hurry you home

Yours very Aff.te

Ann Chester
