nothing of Parcason since you left us Ben is at the Neck, and old Dick takes care of the Schooners Sails I hear Mr & Mrs Ross intended to have been here last Night but suppose the appearence of rain prevented their setting out, my Bro^r and Henry are to be here to morrow so you see there is not much fear of my being a lone, tho I knows there is no Company that I so anxiously wish for as my Husband and I fear I shall not be able to submit to such frequent seppernations with any tolterable grace much longer, my mind grows weaker, and I feel like one at a loss for a support when ever you leave me god bless you and bring you back safe
