n.d. James Chiston

SIDE ONE

My d r Mr Cheston

I this Morning paid Mrs Cook a Visit. Mr Cooke desired I would inclose you the paper you will find, and desire you would come to Town, or he could not get the money for you, from the Treasury. It is he says necessary to apply to the assembly, tho only a matter of form. I am now at Doc.r Murrays, and have had a very pleasant time, I never saw Fanny in better spirits and think the journey will be of use to her. Dinner on the table, I have desired the Carriage to meet me on Sunday and hope to see you to-morrow
