n.d. James Chaston

SIDE ONE

F. A. Chaston

Mr James Chaston
Baltimore

My Dear Papa

I will begin to tell you aboul the fox hunt Uncle Joe Galloway was out with some gentelmen and caught a fox and I hope you will have a grate deal of sporte. Mamma has borrowed the Sorrows of Werter and I have read them allmost thro but I did not shead one tear nor did I see any reson why I should. Tom got her this Moning. Grand papa has been to hall the [illegible] and got about a bushel of fish a[illegible] of going [illegible] in the