n.d. James Cheston to William Randolph

SIDE ONE

balance my books here and transmit them to you Acc.ts of the ~~[illegible]~~ Servants imported by the Different Vessels, the General Acc.t of the List of Debts still outstanding; in that a compleat Acc.t of all the Business transacted by me herein I will likewise mention this Matter to my Brother who has never wrote me that you ~~have~~ had urged the se[illegible] I believe it [illegible] that you would like my general letter to the Merchants it will afford you an opportunity to [illegible] something on the Measures being carried directly into execution, and I indeed mentioned the ~~[illegible]~~ this all it all, ~~[illegible]~~ said nothing as I should certainly have considered it in the light I do now, and consequently proposed some thing or other of the same kind ~~[illegible]~~ W Randolph I am much obliged by your offer of keeping up a friendly Correspondence; I wish
