SIDE ONE

[1790s]

My Dear Brother

I wrote you on Saterday and in that Letter acknowlidged the great Obligations I was under to you for Permiting Tommy to return to Dulip Hill but lest it should not get safe to hand I could not omitt again repeating My Acknowlidgement to you for such a favor it was more then I could have asked or he had any wright to Escapect in Short I may say my feelings upon this Occasion are not to be Described to have once more saved my Poor Child from Destruction and seeing him taken into your favor and placed in your hands has made me Compleatly Happy I will make it my Study to repay your kindness through the Course of my Life and I will yet hope he will him Self be Sensible that much is due from him to you I bleave no person was ever Delivered from Severer Grief then I was when I received your second Letter as I had given up the Matter your reasons was such that I could but be Sensible they were Unanswerable May every Comfort attend you and my Dear Sister is the Prayer of Your Affe Sister Mary Ringgold

Mr James Ringgold