The Japanese and Russian fleets are still playing "hide and seek" and anticipations of a great sea fight seem to be no nearer fulfillment than they were a month ago. It is possible that Rojestvensky may manage to evade a battle with Togo until he reaches Vladivostock, which is apparently his objective.

NOT AN INJUSTICE.

The Advocate, in commenting upon the SENTINEL'S reference to the action of the Association of Democratic Editors in "endorsing the proposed amendment to the constitution designed to disfranchise the colored voters," says:

Our neighbor does the Democratic Editors' Association an injustice in declaring that "as the amendment is the scheme of the bosses to continue them in authority, its endorsement by the Association is not a surprise to anybody." The Sentinel should know that the proposed amendment to eliminate the ignorant and worthless negroes from the electorate is in fulfilment of the Democratic platform of 1903.

Our neighbor should be aware that Democratic platforms in Maryland are usually dictated by the bosses, and that the whole disfranchisement scheme is simply designed to perpetuate Democratic party supremacy in Maryland under boss rule. Negro suffrage has existed in the State for thirty-five years and white supremacy has never for a moment been threatened during all that period. The colored voters have never, in any manner, contributed to the bad government of the State. On the contrary, that has been the work of the Democratic bosses, and the colored voters in 1895, as the SENTINEL remarked in the article criticised by the Advocate, "helped to put these gentry—the Democratic bosses—out of business long enough to reform some of the glaring abuses in government which had brought shame and reproach upon the State."

It is only necessary to add that this last quotation is a portion of the article referred to which the Advocate omitted to quote.

Heavy Snow In Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo., April 20.—Every telegraph pole for 30 miles east of Cheyenne and 20 miles south has been leveled by the snow. The Union Pacific has sent out emergency squads of linemen to restore connections, so that the dispatching of trains may be carried on. The snow is the heaviest ever known here.

Mrs. Donald McLean, of New York, eldest daughter of the late Judge John Ritchie, of Frederick, was elected president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at the convention of that organization, held in Washington yesterday. She succeeds Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of Vice-President Fairbanks, who held the position during the last four years. There was a spirited contest over the position and Mrs. McLean won by a vote of 362 to 322 for her opponent. She is a granddaughter of the late Judge Wm. P. Maulsby, of this city.

Mrs. Phoebe S. Biggs, widow of Joshua Biggs, state senator from Frederick county at the sessions of 1868 and 1870, died last Friday at the home of her son, Mr. James S. Biggs, at Rocky Ridge, Frederick county, aged 79 years. Her maiden name was Morrison, and she was married on November 11, 1856. She is survived by four sons—Robert, a lawyer; William H., a merchant, and Dr. David M., a dentist, all of Baltimore, and James S., agent of the Western Maryland Railroad at Rocky Ridge.

Mr. Alvey Stoner committed suicide by hanging himself in the barn of his father, Mr. Samuel Stoner, a farmer near Oak Orchard, Frederick county, last Friday evening. The cause of his fatal act is attributed to melancholia. He was about 30 years old and unmarried.

It is now considered that the mountain peach buds of Washington county were not damaged by the recent cold snap.

The school at Highland View, taught by Mr. W. F. Barnes, celebrated Arbor and Bird Day, Friday, 14 inst. The program was quite an elaborate one, consisting of readings, recitations and songs, partly prepared by the school and partly arranged by the State superintendent of public education, M. Bates Stephens, Ph. D. The exercises opened with singing, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," which was followed by an address by the teacher, entitled Arbor Day and why we celebrate it, and also a Scripture reading figuratively comparing man's life to the Tree; recitations, When the Green Gets Back in the Trees, Nina Stambaugh; How the Woodpecker knows, Roland Paynter; The Trees, Joseph H. Hancock; What we Plant, Estella McQuay; song, Maryland, My Maryland, by the school; reading, How to Plant Trees, Roland Paynter; essay, The Trees I Know, Fritz Will; recitation, Arbor Day, Ethel McQuay; Memory Gems, By ten little boys and girls, ranging from 6 to 10 years old; song by the school, Star Spangled Banner. McKinley; Peach Tree, H. W. Longfellow; The Cedar, James A. Garfield. After the close of the outdoor exercises all returned to the house, sang "God Be With You," and were dismissed.

Mrs. Ways, who had been very ill, we are glad to say is able to be about again.

Mr. A. H. Wallace has had sale, and will move with his family to Cardiff, near Delta, Pa., where he is employed with the Cardiff Slate Manufacturing Co. They will be very much missed here, especially by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missonary Society, which has had very many interesting meetings at their home. The best wishes of many friends go with them to their new home.

Last Sunday evening while Mrs. Columbus Barnes and children and her mother, Mrs. Rawlings, were out driving one of the children's hats blew off. Mrs. Barnes got out of the surrey to recover it, when the horses started. Mrs. Rawlings could not reach the reins and in her effort to get out was thrown to the ground. Winfield Items.

Miss Amelia Cover, expects to spend Easter Sunday as the guest of Miss Bessie Richardson, in Baltimore.

In spite of the very inclement weather of last Friday night, Mr. A. M. Zile delivered his stereopticon lecture illustrated with more than three hundred foreign views and enlivened by several of the latest songs, and numerous local "snap shots," to a very appreciative audience. It takes more than a cold rain to dampen Arthur's enthusiasm.

Miss Mildred Myers, of Sams Creek, spent several days, recently, as the guest of the Misses Houck.

Academy Hall is to be made more attractive with a beautiful new Easter dress. Mathers, of Westminster, are to furnish the dress.

Many people of this vicinity are already looking forward to the pleasure of the lecture upon "Courtship and Marriage" which is to be delivered at Academy Hall on Monday evening, April 24th, by that noted humorist, Rev. B. F. Clarkson. Those who have never heard him are anxious to do so and those who have are especially anxious to hear him again. Rev. Clarkson is the master of that peculiar art which so few possess, of saying the very funniest thing in the very funniest way. He seems to strike your funny bone at every turn, and force you into convulsions of merriment, though your mother-in-law has just died or what is, perhaps, equally sad, tho' she is sitting just across the aisle. We are asked to state that the lecture will begin at 8 o'clock. The admission will be but 10 cents, and those who desire reserved seats can secure them by applying to Prof. Flack.

Mr. A. J. Stem made a business trip to Baltimore during the week.

Letter to W. H. H. Zepp,

WESTMINSTER.

Dear Sir: Two years ago, Mr. Grant Smith, Erie, Pa, painted three frame houses, and the woodwork of a brick house.

The painter estimated $116.50 for the paint, lead and oil.

He bought Devoe $97.40 and returned $11 60. Saved $31.10 on the paint.

Don't know the cost of the work. By the rule, the saving of labor would be from $60 to $90.

On all, from $90 to $120.

This is the tale, as it comes from Messrs W F Nick & Son, our agents there for 40 years. Yours truly Arrayed in all its splendor, "Ben-Hur" will inaugurate an engagement of one week at the Academy of Music, Baltimore on Monday evening May 8th. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinee. Of all the spectacular productions of modern times, none has been credited with so long a run of prosperity as this great and popular dramatic romance. "Ben-Hur" is to-day crowned with a record of nearly 1,900 performances in a little over 5 years, and has been seen by more than four million people. No play in the history of the stage world admits of the massive scenic settings that "Ben-Hur" does. The advance sale of seats opens Thursday morning, May 4th, at 9 o'clock. M. J. Lehmayer business manager of the Academy of Music announces that out-of-town orders, if accompanied by remittance, will be filled in the order received.

THE MILLER BROS. CO.

To Know What's New, Come to the Store That Gets the NEW THINGS FIRST.

WHATEVER is novel or worthy always finds its way to this store quickly. It is doubtless true that no other store gives quite so many things first introduction to Westminster. Our customers long ago learned to expect this service of us, and now take it as a matter of course. And, without being fussy about it, we bring out every day many things not seen before. So fast they follow one upon another, it is impossible to tell them all in print. But good eyes will discover many things quite as interesting as the comparatively few here briefly noted.

TO-DAY
THE DAY BEFORE EASTER.

IN EVERY CORNER OF THIS BIG STORE THERE IS ABUNDANT EVIDENCE OF THE IMMENSE PREPARATIONS WE HAVE MADE FOR THIS GLORIOUS EASTER TIME. THE TIME THAT MAN AND NATURE ALIKE DON A NEW GARB.

We Call Special Attention to a Few Things You May WANT FOR EASTER SUNDAY.

Westminster's Finest Millinery.
The hats shown here are different from those you'll see in any other millinery shops, and no one can make satisfactory imitations of our hats.

A most notable bargain.

KID GLOVES.
Needless to tell you that the Kid Glove stock is now at its best. Every good and asked for color. Each in a standard well tested kind. Size assortments most complete and prices absolutely fair.
We can add no emphasis to the above and not one word less can we say and do the stock justice.
Selling Gloves on honor is a principle here. They must be right in every way or your money back. Safety and satisfaction attends such trading always.

Hosiery and Underwear.
At all times and at all seasons is the Hosiery and Underwear section replete with the best products of the foreign and domestic manufacturers. At no time, though, is it so completely representative as now.
No department in the store receives more careful attention, no department is more freely patronized. If you are particular as to make, finish and wear of these important items; if you are getting desirous of getting an honest return for the money invested, this store invites you to make it the base of your Hosiery and Underwear supplies. Stock now at its very best.
