1785

SIDE ONE

This Charter party made and concluded upon by and between James Cheston of Anne Arundel County in the State of Maryland Merchant In behalf of George and Francis Fisher Merchants of Bristol in the Kingdom of great Brittain Owners of the Ship Nautilus burthen about Ninety tons or thereabouts, whereof is Master Michael Winter, of the One part and Charles Wallace and John Muirs of Annapolis in the said State Merchants of the other part Witnesseth That the said James Cheston hath and hereby doth let the said Ship Nautilus to the said Charles Wallace and John Muirs to carry on Freight a Cargo of Tobacco from Maryland to London On the following terms and Conditions to wit, - First the said James Cheston doth Covenant, that the said Ship is and shall be Staunch Tight and Well Fitted provisioned and Manned fitting for such a Voyage and that she shall be made ready to receive the Cargo aforesaid by her Hold being safe and properly Dunnaged, at the Town of Lower Marlborough on Patuxent River as soon as possible and as soon as the said Ship is loaded shall proceed Directly to London and there Deliver the said Cargo to the Assigns of the said Affreighters And the said Charles Wallace & John Muirs do hereby Covenants and agree on their part, that they will have the