American Sentinel.

IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON.
AT ODD FELLOWS' HALL,
WESTMINSTER - MARYLAND.

E. OLIVER GRIMES, Jr., and
WILLIAM L. SEABROOK,
Receivers and Proprietors.

JOHN H. MITTEN, - - - - - - MANAGER.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28 1905.

TERMS

$1.00 per year, to be paid in advance. If not paid in advance $1.50 will be charged. 50 cents for six months, and 25 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES.—On square (8 lines) will be inserted 3 times or less for $1, and 25 for cts., for each subsequent insertion. One square 3 months, $5.00; 6 months, $8.00; 12 months, $8.00. One square 1 time 50 cents. Business Cards, not exceeding 8 line, $8 per year. When the number of insertions is not marked advertisements will be continued until forbid and charged accordingly. Yearly advertisers must confine advertisements to their own business. Rule and Figure Work double price. Business Locals 10 cents per line. Marriages and deaths inserted free. Obituaries and Personal Communications 5 cents per line.

TERMS.

Yearly advertisements $5.00 per inch, for more than one inch, per year; $3.00 per inch for 6 months and $2.00 per inch for 3 months.

One column one year $100; half column $60; quarter column $30. Monthly changes allowed without extra charge. Extra changes will be charged for as follows:—Column advertisements, 75 cents each; half column, 40 cents; quarter column, 25 cents. Advertisers desiring changes should notify the office by Tuesday noon.

☞All correspondence with this office should be addressed to "THE SENTINEL."

Entered at the Post Office, Westminster, Marvland as Second Class Matter.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In view of the many inquiries that have been most naturally made during the past week, it becomes our duty to make a frank statement to the public.

Because of the fact that a number of persons are interested in the AMERICAN SENTINEL and job printing office; for the protection of all these interests the undersigned were by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, appointed Receivers, and will continue the publication of the AMERICAN SENTINEL and all the work of the office, under the same business and editorial management that existed before the death of Mrs. E. J. Rippard.

So far as the interests of the public are concerned there is no change whatever in the conduct of the office, and we solicit the continued patronage of subscribers and advertisers, assuring them that they will receive as in the past, faithful and efficient service.

E. O. GRIMES, Jr.,
W. L. SEABROOK,
Receivers.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Farmers are busy getting ready for corn planting.

Growing grain and grass are coming on finely in this vicinity.

The Easter services at the various churches in this city were largely attended.

Apple, pear, cherry and other fruit trees are full of blossoms and there are prospects of a fair fruit crop.

Mr. "Billy" Fowler will open his hotel and cafe, adjoining Boyle's drug store, this city, on Monday next.

The Westminster High School will give an entertainment at Odd Fellows' Hall, next Friday night, May 5th.

A rural station, with money order and registry facilities, will be established at Union Mills on Monday, May 1st. It will be tributary to the Westminster office.

The announcement, published in the SENTINEL last week, that the "Owl" train was to be discontinued between Union Bridge and Emory Grove, has been recalled and the train will continue to run as heretofore.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. C. Elseroad, near Wesley Church, in Hampstead district, aged a year or upwards, was found dead in bed on Friday last. The cause of its death has not been learned. Its remains were interred in Wesley church burial ground on Saturday.

During a game of baseball on the college grounds, this city, on Saturday last, a bat flew out of the hands of one of the players and struck Sterling, the 11-year-old son of Mr. Frank S. Grumbine, in the abdomen. The blow was so severe that the lad was unconscious for several hours, but has now entirely recovered from its effect.

The County Commissioners were in session on Monday and Tuesday and engaged chiefly in making transfers and abatements for Westminster and Hampstead districts. Mr. Jonas M. Wagner was appointed a Road Commissioner for New Windsor district. A special pension of $5 was granted Mary Hawk, of district No. 1.

Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, who recently retired with well-deserved honors from the active ministry of the Maryland Annual Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, and who has just closed a pastorate of four years at Lisbon, bade farewell to his members and friends at Lisbon Tuesday morning, and has gone to Belair to reside.

Arrangements are being made for a great occasion at Sandy Mount M. P. Church on Sunday, May 14th. A district Sunday School convention will be held there, beginning on Saturday evening, May 13th, and continuing all day Sunday, four sessions in all. There will be live discussions of up-to-date topics. An interesting feature will be a display of Sunday School appliances, furnished by the Maryland S. S. Union.

Mr. Arimstead S. Marshall, an undertaker, formerly of Gamber, this county, was discharged in bankruptcy, by the United States Court in Baltimore on Wednesday. The discharge was opposed by his creditors, who made a strong but unsuccessful effort to prevent it. Joseph D. Brooks, Esq., of this city, was counsel for the petitioner and Messrs. Steiner & Putzel, of Baltimore, for the creditors.

The case of William T. Reinecker vs. Jerome Dutterer and Mary E. Dutterer, his wife, which had been pending in the Circuit Court for Carroll county, in Equity, since June, 1899, was decided in favor of the plaintiff by Judge Thomas, last Saturday. The bill in this case was filed for the purpose of setting aside a deed and chattel mortgage. Messrs. Reifsnider & Grimes and Charles E. Fink, Esq., represented the plaintiff and Messrs. Bond & Parke the defendant.

At a meeting held Monday afternoon at the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, a State branch of the American National Red Cross Society, chartered by Congress last winter, was organized, with Governor Warfield as president, Cardinal Gibbons as first vice-president, and a vice-president for each county and from each senatorial district of Baltimore. Dr. J. W. Hering is the vice president for Carroll county. Maryland is the first State to organize a branch or auxiliary society of the national body.

Mr. George A. Bell, of this city, who for some time has been working near Baltimore at his trade of blacksmithing, was found in an unconscious condition near the tracks of the United Railways, on Park Heights avenue, near Pimlico, about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, and is now in the City Hospital. He was discovered by the motorman of an Emory Grove car. The motorman and conductor picked him up. He was in a semi-conscious condition, but managed to state that he had been struck by another car going north about 30 minutes before he was found. The injured man was taken on the car and hurried to the City Hospital, where an examination showed that his collarbone had been fractured, his scalp cut and his hip and back contused. He was unable to state how the accident occurred.

The Anchor Hotel, West Main street, this city, is being repainted.

This locality was visited by refreshing showers of rain on Wednesday afternoon and yesterday.

Mr. Chas. E. Stewart, of this city, has had his residence on East Main street repainted. Mr. S. K. Yingling was the painter.

Mr. Morris Mitten, the proprietor of a fine bakery on East Main street, this city, has had a very handsome delivery wagon built by Messrs. Herr & Babylon.

Drs. J. H. Billingslea and Charles R. Foutz, of this city, attended the 107th session of the Medical and Chirurgical Society of Maryland, in Baltimore, yesterday.

Mr. John E. Deeds, of this city, purchased yesterday from Mr. Andrew P. Albaugh, of Franklin district, 117 spring chickens for which he paid $43.84.

Messrs. B. F. Shriver & Co. shipped to Baltimore city, this morning, twenty fat cattle for export. The cattle were fed at the farm of the Messrs. Shriver, adjoining this city, and weighed 26,490 pounds, an average of 1324 pounds and a fraction.

F. Neal Parke, Esq., argued the case of Catherine E. Bowman against Charles A. Little and others, administrators of G. Walter Bowman, appealed from the Circuit Court for this county, for the appellant, in the Court of Appeals, on Wednesday.

Last night Door to Virtue Lodge No. 46, A. F. and A. M., raised a candidate to the third degree. Visitors were present from Baltimore, Hampstead and Union Bridge and during the evening refreshments of ice cream, strawberries and cake were served.

A communication, signed "New Windsor Baseball Team," which animadverts severely upon the treatment received by that organization in this city, on Saturday last, was received by the SENTINEL yesterday. As it is practically anonymous it must share the fate of such communications and find a place in the waste basket.

Three colored men escaped from the jail of Frederick county, between midnight and daybreak on Tuesday morning, and two of them are still at large. The third one, Thomas Sewell, was caught yesterday at Watersville by Deputy Sheriff Bellison, of this county, and returned to the jail at Frederick. The men escaped by sawing a bar out of a grated window and then scaling the wall surrounding the jail.

Mr. Harry G. Cunningham, who died at his home on Madison avenue, Baltimore, on Friday last, leaves a widow who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ensor, of New York, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Nelson Mitten, of this city. His funeral took place on Sunday, Rev. H. S. France and Rev. Mr. McDowell officiating. Members of the Royal Arcanum, of which he was a member, were pall-bearers. Interment was in Loudoun Park Cemetery.

An Easter social was held in the lecture room of Centenary M. E. Church, this city, on Monday evening, at which a musical program was rendered and a talk was made by Mrs. S. K. Herr on "An Evening in the Yosemite Valley." The attendance was large and the exercises were much enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Herr's talk was especially interesting, her description of the wonderful Yosemite Valley having been very vivid and realistic.

On Easter Monday a game of baseball was played at Hampstead by the Westminster Juniors and the Hampstead team. Although during the latter part of the game the Hampstead team, fearing defeat, put in several L. S. A. players, they were defeated by a score of 11 to 6. The features of the game were the pitching of Brooks and the catching of Butler. Sullivan played a good game for the Hampstead team. Umpires, Diffendal and Shugars.

Mr. J. H. Weller, foreman of section 6, Western Waryland Railroad, beginning east of Carrollton and extending westward, has been given entire charge of 31 extra men, in addition to his regular force, who will be employed in raising, ballasting and equalizing the surface of the road bed, to fit it for receiving the 90 pound rails which are to be substituted for the lighter rails now in use and which are not sufficiently strong to carry the heavy coal freight that will come over the road as soon as connection with the West Virginia Central shall have been completed. "Surfacing" is the technical word used for the work referred to and which will be pushed westward to Hagerstown.

The Sunday Schools and Christian Endeavor Societies of the Maryland and Virginia Eldership of the Church of God will hold their annual convention, jointly, at Bark Hill, June 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. It will be the seventh annual convention of the Sunday Schools and the second annual convention of the C. E. Societies. The opening sermon of the convention will be delivered June 7th, at 8 P. M., and the sessions of the 8th and 9th will be devoted to Sunday School interests. Saturday's sessions will be given to Christian Endeavor work on Sunday to vesper services. An elaborate program has been prepared for the convention, in which ministers, laymen, and lady members of the church will participate.

Oscar Houck, who recently returned to this county, of which he was formerly a resident, from a sojourn of some time in Texas, had a hearing before Justice William Moore, on Wednesday, and was held to bail in the sum of $500 for action of the grand jury on the charge of attempting to procure the money on a forged check, for $300, from the Union National Bank of Westminster. The check was drawn by the accu-ed himself on an Oklahoma bank and payable to the order of "Joe" Leppo, by whose name it was endorsed. Dr. Hering, the cashier, is familiar with Mr. Leppo's signature and seeing that the name on the check did not correspond with it, refused to cash it. He wrote to Mr. Leppo, who resides in Woolery's district, and the latter came to town on Wednesday and denied all knowledge of the check. A warrant was procured and Houck was arrested by Constable Elias N. Davis. Houck first attempted to have the check cashed at the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank, where he was introduced by an acquaintance, but did not succeed in obtaining the money. He then presented it at the First National Bank, with a similar result.

Jurors for May Term.

Judge Wm. H. Thomas has excused a number of the jurors first drawn for the May term of the Circuit Court for this county and has drawn others in their places. The names of those drawn and those excused are as follows:

Taneytown District.—Rufus W. Reaver and David A. Bachman, in place of John S. Bower and Harry E. Shorb, respectively.

Myers' District.—John F. Maus, in place of Edward F. Groft.

Freedom District.—Jeremiah Flohr and Perry F. Cheny, in place of Harry L. Moore and Eli T. Frizzell, respectively.

Manchester District.—William Folger, in place of Jonas Shaffer.

Westminster District.—John J. Rose, in place of Andrew D. Reese.

New Windsor District.—Jesse Stevenson, in place of Howard D. Ensor.

Orphans' Court.

Monday, April 24th.—Mary C. Leister, former executrix of Noah J. Leister, deceased, settled account showing condition of estate upon revocation of her letters.

Edward J. Leister, administrator, w. a., of Noah J. Leister, deceased, settled first account.

Christopher Schnobel, executor of Mary Schnobel, deceased, returned inventories of personal property, real estate and money.

Tuesday, April 25th.—George L. Stocksdale, executor of Henry E. Morelock, deceased, reported sale of real estate, and received order ni si thereon.

George E. Cox, administrator d. b. n. c. t. a. of Melchoir Cox, deceased, reported sale of real estate and leasehold property, and received order ni si thereon.

The last will and testament of Francis M. Roberts, deceased, admitted to probate.

For Mayor and Councilmen.

The town meeting called by Mayor O. D. Gilbert to nominate candidates for mayor and members of the common council of this city, to be voted for at the municipal election on Monday next, assembled at Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday evening and was called to order by the election of Mr. Harry P. Gorsuch, chairman, and Mr. S. C. Stoner, secretary. The meeting was fairly well attended and considerable interest was manifested in the proceedings, although there were no contests. Mayor Gilbert's name was presented for renomination for a fifth consecutive term as chief magisttrate of the city, by Mr. Charles C. Gorsuch, who highly eulogized the mayor and expressed his own great pleasure in the opportunity thus offered to commend a worthy official. The nomination was promptly seconded and was made by acclamation.

Messrs. Edwin W. Shriver, John J. Reese, John H. Elgen, John T. Zahn and Wm. D. Henry were then placed in nomination as the councilmanic candidates and received the endorsement of the meeting by acclamation. All of these gentlemen were renominated except Mr. Shriver, and his nomination is regarded by many as an expression of the faith of his fellow-townsmen in his integrity. Mr. Shriver was recently dismissed from the free rural delivery postal service, in which he was a special inspector, after years of honorable and efficient effort to promote the success of the system in the origin of which he had a prominent part, having devised, as is well known, the "postoffice on wheels," and filled the position of postal clerk on the first postal wagon ever sent over a route in this country.

After the nominations Messrs. John H. Cunningham, Chas. C. Gorsuch and Chas. V. Wantz were appointed a committee to notify the candidates of the action of the meeting. The same committee was also empowered to fill any vacancies that might possibly occur on the ticket.

The election will take place between the hours of 12 M. and 6 P. M., on Monday next, at the residence of Mrs. M. E. Grumbine, No. 72 East Main street.

WEDDING BELLS.

Yantis-Erb.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Erb, No. 204 High street, Hanover, Pa., formerly of this city, on Tuesday evening of last week, when their only daughter, May Ella, was united in marriage to William Brook Yantis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. C. M. Stock, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Shriver-Royer.

A quiet but very interesting wedding took place at half-after three o'clock, yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Helwig, West Main street, this city. The bride was Miss Margaret Alverta Royer, sister of Mrs. Helwig and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs Alfred Royer, and the groom Mr. David Eltinge Shriver, son of Mr. D. Keener Shriver, of this city. There were no attendants and only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. The bride wore a going-away gown of changeable peau de sene silk, with hat and gloves to match, and carried white roses. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. C. S. Slagle, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church. Preceding the ceremony a wedding dinner was given at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Shriver left by an afternoon train for a wedding trip and upon their return will make their home in this city.

Erskine-Barnes.

A pretty wedding took place at St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church, Mt. Airy, at noon on Wednesday, when Miss Levantia Livingstone Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barnes, became the bride of Mr. William B. Erskine, of Wheeling, W. Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David May, rector of the church. The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given away at the chancel, where she was met by the bridegroom, attended by his best man, R. St. Clair Barnes, brother of the bride. The ushers were Byron S. Dorsey, Jr., and Robert Schwarts Barnes, brother of the bride. Miss Leoma Weaver, of Littlestown, Pa., a classmate of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride is a graduate of the Woman's College, of Frederick. The groom is chief civil engineer of the Wabash Railroad and a son of W. B. Erskine, a lawyer of Wheeling, W. Va. Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Erskine left for New York and Canada.

Davis-Eckenrode.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Eckenrode, George street, this city, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at half after 7 o'clock, Tuesday evening last. The bride was their daughter, Miss Mary Beatrice Eckenrode, and the groom Mr. George Henry Davis, formerly of this city, but now engaged in business at Stevenson in Green Spring Valley, and who is a son of Mr. Franklin Davis, of Frederick. The bride wore a wedding gown of white silk chiffon over white taffeta, with lace trimmings, tulle veil and orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Anna Marie Eckenrode, who was maid of honor, wore a gown of white Irish lawn over pink taffeta. Mr. Gloyd E. Eckenrode, the bride's brother, was best man. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Prof. Howard White, of Union Bridge, at the piano, and Mr. Thomas Anders, of this city, with violin, as the bridal party entered the parlor, where the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Jos. H. Cassidy. After the ceremony a reception was held and refreshments of ice cream, cake, confections, fruit, &c., served in abundance. Guests were present from Union Bridge, Frederick, Baltimore, Westminster and vicinity and elsewhere, and were received by Misses Lena Metcalf, of Unionville; Helen Rinehart, of Union Bridge; Minerva Finney, of Roland Park, Baltimore; Lillian Warten, of Baltimore; Mary Cashour, of New Market, and Maggie R. Eckenrode, of this city. The presents were numerous and very handsome, consisting of silver, china, cut glass, linens, bric-a-brac, &c. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Davis were driven to Reisterstown, where they took the electric cars for Baltimore and a trip to Delaware, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and elsewhere. They will reside at Stevenson.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Zachariah Condon.

Zachariah Condon, aged 76 years, died at his home, near Woodville, Frederick county, Thursday afternoon, 20th inst. He is survived by a widow and two daughters (Mrs. W. H. Hood, of Mount Airy, and Miss Belle Condon, of near Woodville.)

Joseph Kleinsnitz.

Mr. Joseph Kleinsnitz, son of the late Joseph and Anna Kleinsnitz, of this city, died in Baltimore, on Monday, in his 25th year, and his funeral took place on Wednesday morning, from the undertaking establishment of Christian Miller, N. W. corner of Jefferson street and Montford avenue, at 7.30 o'clock. A requiem mass was said at St. Andrew's Catholic Church, at 8 o'clock, after which the remains were interred in St. Alphonsus Cemetery.

Mrs. Jane McMurran.

Mrs. Jane McMurran, who until a few weeks ago resided in this city, died suddenly at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Martha C. Gibbs, No. 1329 Bolton street, Baltimore, on Monday. She had been a resident of this city for a number of years, but quite recently left here for Virginia, stopping at the home of her sister, where she died before reaching her destination. Her remains were taken to Gordonsville, Va., for interment. Mrs. McMurran was the daughter of J. P. C. and Jane Henderson Peter, of Montgomery county. Nine children survive her—five sons and four daughters. Mrs. Curtis Gibbs, of Baltimore, a sister, and Mr. Parke Peter, of Montgomery county, a brother, also survive.

Mrs. Ida Flint Algire.

Mrs. Ida Flint Algire, wife of Mr. Joseph P. Algire, died at her home, Bellona avenue, Govanstown, on Monday last, aged 49 years. Mrs. Algire formerly resided in this city and was well known here. Her husband is a brother of Mrs. R. Charles Matthews, of this city.

Mrs. Annie Starner.

Mrs. Annie Starner, wife of Mr. Calvin Starner, Jr., died at her home near Frizellburg, at 6 o'clock, this morning, aged 59 years, 14 days. Mrs. Starner had been suffering with diabetis for some time past, but was only seriously ill since Sunday. She was a daughter of the late David Circle and was well known and highly esteemed by a large number of friends and acquaintances. Her husband, a prominent and well known farmer of this county, survives her, and she leaves two daughters and eight sons, all adults; also three sisters and two brothers. She was a faithful member of St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church where the funeral service will be held on Sunday afternoon, (the meeting at the house to be at 1 o'clock,) and her remains will be interred in Benjamin's Cemetery.

Mr. R. Wyndham Walden.

Mr. R. Wyndhan Walden, proprietor of the great thoroughbred racing-stock farm, Bowling Brook, at Middleburg, died at 7 o'clock this morniug, after a short illness, of pneumonia, aged 61 years. He had resided during most of his manhood years at Bowling Brook which, from a comparatively modest beginning, has grown under his management to be one of the largest and finest racing-stock farms in the country, embracing, now, nearly 1400 acres. It is beautifully located, in full view of the Blue Ridge mountain, and has been improved by Mr. Walden until it is unsurpassed in fertility and beauty. It was Mr. Walden's pride to keep every foot of this fine estate in perfect order and he gave employment to many people, who can testify to his liberality and generosity and his kind and charitable nature.

Mr. Walden was a native of Eatonville, N. J. He leaves a widow and the following children: Mr. Wm. W. Walden, Mr. Robert J. Walden and Mrs. Fred. Littlefield.

Wm. R. Curry.

Mr. William R. Curry, a surveyor and conveyancer, widely known through Carroll and Frederick counties, died at his home, at Sams Creek, on Sunday morning in his eighty-first year. He followed his profession actively until the past year, and was known as one of the most efficient in its several branches in this part of the state. It brought him frequently to this city, where he was a familiar figure. He was a Democrat politically, but was a man of independent views and often found himself strongly at variance with his party upon measures which he considered contrary to real Democratic principles, and was glad to see the party defeated on such occasions. He leaves a widow, two daughters and two sons—Misses Florence and Alice Curry, at home; Charles B. Curry, of Chicago, and Levi S. Curry, of New Jersey. Funeral services took place at his late residence, on the Frederick county side of Sams Creek, on Wednesday morning, Rev. L. E. Bennett, pastor of New Windsor circuit, M. E. Church, officiating, after which his remains were interred in the burial ground of the Presbyterian Church at New Windsor. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Howard Devilbiss, Walter Engel, John Drach, Marshall Nusbaum, Charles E. Nicodemus and David E. Stem.

Charles H. Baughman.

Mr. Charles H. Baughman, a clerk in the statistical department of the Baltimore custom house, whose serious illness was noted in the SENTINEL last week, died at his Baltimore residence on Saturday morning last, of apoplexy, in his 52nd year. Mr. Baughman was the eldest son of the late Michael Baughman, and his childhood and most of his manhood years were spent in this city, of which he was a native. He was an Alumnus of Western Maryland College, and a member of the first class ever graduated from that institution. After his graduation he adopted the profession of a teacher as his vocation in life and devoted himself to the discharge of its duties with conscientious fidelity and zeal and manifested his efficiency and ability so clearly that he was made principal of the high school of this city, a position he held for a number of years.

About fifteen years ago he was appointed a clerk in the statistical department of the Baltimore custom house, by the late Wm. M. Marine, then collector of the port, and remained continuously in the service from that time until his death. He was promoted several times for efficiency, and, during the illness which resulted in his death, was spoken of by Collector Stone as an exceedingly efficient and faithful officer.

A short time before his appointment in the customs service Mr. Baughman married Miss Emma R. Cassell, daughter of Mr. Thos. Cassell, of Baltimore, who survives him. It was the custom of Mr. and Mrs. Baughman to spend the summer months in this city and this was Mr. Baughman's legal residence.

Mr. Baughman had many most estimable qualities. He was a gentleman of uncompromising integrity and most affable and amiable disposition, warm hearted and loving toward his friends and forbearing in his intercourse with all, whenever there was need of forbearance, which was very seldom, as he had few, if any enemies. He was, in fact, a true christian gentleman, and worthy the high esteem in which he was held in every relation of life.

Surviving the deceased are one sister, Mrs. Thomas J. Cross, and two brothers, Dr. Geo. E. Baughman, of this city, and Mr. Harry Baughman, a clerk in the Baltimore postoffice.

After a short service at Mr. Baughman's late home in Baltimore, on Sunday afternoon, his remains were brought to this city and taken to the home of his brother, Dr. George E. Baughman. The body was escorted from the railroad station by Door to Virtue Lodge A. F. and A. M., of which he was a Past Master. Mr. Baughman was also a member of Charity Lodge, K. of P., Carroll Division, S. of T., and Westminster Lodge No. 41, I. O. M. His funeral took place at 2 o'clock, Monday afternoon, at the Methodist Protestant Church, of which he was a devoted member for many years. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. E. Webster, assisted by Rev. Dr. H. L. Elderdice, president of Westminster Theological Seminary, and the former delivered a glowing eulogy upon the life and character of the deceased. The funeral was attended in a body by the members of Door to Virtue Lodge, with the venerable William A. Cunningham acting Worshipful Master, who conducted the funeral rites of the Fraternity at the grave in Westminster Cemetery. Representatives of Charity Lodge No. 58, Knights of Pythias, and Carroll Division No. 42, Sons of Temperance, were also present. The pall-bearers were: Mr. George R. Gehr, Prof. Wm. R. McDaniel, Messrs. Jesse C. Sharrer, Benj. F. Crouse, Charles E. Goodwin, and Charles F. Miller, Jr., members of Door to Virtue Lodge. A profusion of most exquisite flowers covered the casket and were banked around the pulpit during the service.

Winfield Items.

Mr. Fred. Cronk, who is studying medicine at Johns Hopkins University, spent the Easter holidays with his parents and friends in this vicinity.

The lecture delivered by Rev. Clarkson, at the academy, on Monday night, was well attended and was much enjoyed by all who were present. The secret of Rev. Clarkson's success lies in his thorough knowledge of human nature, and in his ability to present the great truths of life in such a pleasant yet forceful way that they cannot be forgotten.

Rev. A. B. Wood, of Relay, was shaking hands with his many friends here on Wednesday.

Prof. Flack spent the Easter vacation in Baltimore.

Mr. Hasenkamp, the traveling salesman, is now making his rounds in a splendid new automobile.

Carrollton Items.

An Easter entertainment of more than usual interest took place at Wesley M. E. Church on Sunday morning last, at which there was a very large audience present both inside and on the outside of the church. Standing room was at a premium inside of the church. The event was under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, of which Mrs. W. H. S. Algire is the president, but who, it is to be regretted, was detained at her home by sickness. The altar place was tastefully decorated with choice potted plants, flowers and evergreens. In the absence of the president the exercises were in charge of Mr. Thomas Buchman, the superintendent of the Sunday School. An organ voluntary was given by Mrs. Mel Eby, "Easter Dawn" was sung by the choir, prayer was offered by Mr. John Abbott, and recitations were rendered by Misses Lenora Barrick, Sadie Taylor, Jessie Snyder, Esther Sullivan, Emma Richards, Alice Davidson and Mary Walsh. A recitation was given by a class of small girls, each of whom had in her hand an egg of various colors. A song was given by the primary class, entitled "Wake Up Time." A quartet was nicely rendered by Miss Eby, Mrs. Sullivan, Luther Davidson and W. H. S. Algire, with organ accompaniment. "Mary Looking Into the Sepulchre," was given as a responsive reading, and the school sang "The Wonderful Saviour," with duet by Mrs. Carroll Hering and Mrs. Thomas Buchman, and chorus by the choir, congregation and school. Solos were sung by Miss Edith Beam and Mrs. W. H. Grumbine, of Westminster. "Our Father's House" was sung by Mrs. Buchman and Mrs. Sullivan, with chorus by the choir of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hering sang "Some of These Days," with organ accompaniment, after which an address wae made by Mr. John Abbott, who congratulated the Ladies' Aid Society for their grand anniversary and entertainment, and said that the ladies could do what the men could not as the men were entirely too slow in aiding the church. He then made an appeal for a silver collection. The large congregation responded very liberally. Among the strangers present I noticed Mr. Robert Shipley and wife, of Finksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Grumbine, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Algire, of Westminster, with a lady friend, Miss Maud Algire, of Baltimore; Mr. Wiley, also of Baltimore; Mr. W. L. Richards, of Patapsco; Mr. Norris Taylor and Mr. John Houck, of the Church of God, and Mr. Ebaugh, of Baltimore.

Mr. Joel Ebaugh, who had been confined to his home with rheumatism, is out again but looking very feeble.

Mrs. W. H. S. Algire is still a very sick lady.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Union Bethel, Church of God, held its annual Easter entertainment in the church on Sunday night last, at which there was a large turnout of both old and young people. The church was nicely decorated with choice flowers and evergreens. Solos, duets and quartettes were sung and recitations were made in an excellent manner. Rev. Victor K. Betts, the pastor, made an address very appropriate to the occasion. The congregation gave very liberally to aid the society in its Christian work. Messrs. Arthur Chew and Emory Ebaugh were in charge, and R. K. Taylor and John Houck were choristers. Among the strangers who were present were Mrs. D. W. Mules, son Robert T. and daughter Alice V. Mules, of Baltimore.

Uniontown Items.

Miss Flora Arnold, of Taneytown, was the guest of her cousins, the Misses Slonaker several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver spent Saturday in Baltimore, the guests of Mr. W's mother, Mrs. Penelope Martin, and also visited their son Carroll and daughter, Nellie Weaver.

Mrs. William Anders and son Earle, of New Windsor, visited Mrs. A's. mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mering and family, of Baltimore, spent a few days with Mr. M's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mering.

Misses Minnie and Denie Sittig, of Baltimore, spent from Saturday until Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sittig.

Miss Denie Sittig has graduated in stenography and typewriting and secured a situation with Harris & Co., confectioners. We certainly wish our young friend success.

Mr. Harry Weaver attended the funeral of his brother Mason, Mr. Charles H. Baughman, in Westminster, on Monday.

Miss Lucy Fleagle, of Baltimore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Fleagle, a few days the past week.

Miss Anna Harbaugh accompanied her sister, Mrs. Alfred Cooley, on her return to Baltimore on Saturday, spending the week with friends.

Mr. Harry Crumpacker, of New Windsor, was the guest on Sunday of Miss Minnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Mathias.

Miss Virginia Ditts, of New Windsor College, was the guest of Miss Mary Baughman, during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Orrison, of Frederick, Md., was the guest of Miss Lucy Fleagle, Monday and Tuesday, and was entertained by her parents.

Miss Ella Smith, who was visiting relatives in Baltimore, has returned home, having enjoyed her little outing.

Mrs. Margaret Miller, of Baltimore, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. George Selby, and will remain a month or more.

Rev. R. L. Crawford, pastor of the Church of God, immersed ten persons in the stream at Bankard's on Sunday afternoon. They were converts of the revival service during the winter.

Mrs. J. J. Weaver, Jr., returned from her wintering in Washington, D. C., the guest of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fox, Dr. Weaver having returned a week previous. We appreciate their return to their home for the summer.

Mr. Norman Eckard, principal of Brooklyn High school, near Baltimore, visited his mother, Mrs. Ann Eckard, and his sister from Friday until Monday.

Rev. L. F. Murry, pastor of the Church of God, Mayberry, was the guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Rodkey.

For the Sentinel.

An Easter Gathering.

A large company of ladies and gentlemen visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Wagner, near Avondale, where they were handsomely entertained, on Easter Sunday. Those present were: Mrs. Mary Myerly, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams, Earl and Miss Mary Wagner, of Avondale; Mr. and Mrs. David Warehime, son and daughter, Harry and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myers and daughter Mary, of Pleasant Valley; Mr. David C. Hubbs and two daughters, Grace and Susie, of Woodberry, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. James Warren, of Double Pipe Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Myerly and son Samuel, of Gist; Mrs. Lizzie Brothers and son Herschel, of Frizellburg; Miss Emma Brothers, of New Windsor; Miss Lillie and Keener Nelson, of Granite, Baltimore county; Masters Forrest, Jesse and John M. Roser, of Medford; Misses Jane Yingling and Mabel Rinehardt, of Westminster; Mr. Wm. Spore, of Baltimore.

For the Sentinel.

A Birthday Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baumgartner, of Silver Run Valley, was the scene of a happy gathering on Good Friday, the occasion having been the celebration of the 14th anniversary of their daughter, Miss Elda's birthday. The afternoon was spent in various games and social conversation, after which all were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served in abundance. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baumgartner, Mrs. Dr. J. S. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Abken, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Crowl, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Winterode, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leppo, Mrs. Bankert, Misses Elda, Edna and Viola Baumgartner, Elsie Brown, Tressie and Neidah Crowl, Birdie Leppo, Gertrude Abken, Masters Grove and Melvin Brown, Roscoe Crowl, Roy and Preston Winterode, and Willie Steward.

MATHERS'.

Westminster and Manchester.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIALS.

Bed Spreads $1.19.

Special purchase of fine Bed Spreads, in very pretty patterns, large size, real value $1.50, the price for this lot will be $1.19.

$1.19.

Fine Half Bleached Muslin 5 Cents.

Just in, a bale of very fine half bleached Muslin, 38 inches wide, (not 36 inches) the finest and prettiest we have shown for the price, only 5 cents the yard.

5 Cents.

Boys' Negligee Shirts 25c.

Very pretty Negligee Shirts, in most attractive patterns, nicely made in the new spring styles, at a popular price, 25 cents. Also many very pretty patterns in fine new Shirts for men at 39 and 50 cents.

Heavy Shirting Now 8c.

Special purchase of high grade heavy Shirting for men's and boys' shirts, also makes fine skirts for ladies, always before 10 cents, now only 8 cents. All the best colors and patterns.

8 Cents.

Special Matting Values 19c.

We continue to call your attention to this Matting, which is undoubtedly the best Matting value we have ever offered. Beautiful patterns in fine Japanese Mattings and China Mattings, will give splendid wear, only 19 cents the yard.

The Millinery Department.

Don't forget this most attractive corner of our store. We will welcome a visit from you here at any time and stand ready to fill your every want at short notice and to guarantee satisfaction in every case. And what is also an important matter we will save you a nice little sum on your new hat. If you have not already left your order now is the time to do it.

Basement Specials.

Pretty Mirrors 11c.

Pruning Shears, very useful just now, 11 and 25c.

Another special lot of 2 qt. Granite Coffee Pots, at 19c., worth 30c.

Whitewash Brushes of every size and kind at the lowest possible prices.

Garden Sets for the children, 10 and 25 cents.

T. W. Mather & Sons.

APRIL 28, 1905.

Silver Run Items.

St. Mary's Lutheran congregation will hold their regular Holy Communion next Lord's day in the morning, at 10 o'clock; preparatory service on Saturday at 2 P. M.; Sunday School on Sunday at 9 A. M., and regular service in the evening at 7 30. This will conclude the ministry of Rev. H. D. Newcomer on St. Mary's charge, he having accepted a call to Grace Lutheran Church, Baltimore.

St. Mary's Reformed Church, Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, pastor, will hold Divine service next Sunday in the morning at 10 o'clock; Sunday School at 9 A. M., and catechetical instruction on Saturday at 2 P. M. This will conclude the catechetical instruction until July.

The Holy Communion was administered in St. Mary's Reformed Church on Easter morning. The pastor was assisted by Rev. C. W. E. Seigle, of York, Pa., who made the addresses in both German and English. The attendance was unusually large, and we are informed that the number of communicants was larger then on any previous occasion during the present pastorate. The offerings were for benevolence; they too were larger than at any one previous service, having been almost $175.00. The Sunday School service was also largely attended in the evening.

Messrs. Harvey J. and Thos. J. Hull, of Harrisburg, Pa., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hull, over Easter, as did also their daughter, Miss Ida V. Hull, of Westminster.

Mr. Herbert Lippy spent the Easter holidays with friends in Howard county.

Misses Mary and Lula and Mr. Harry Myers, of Frizellbug; Miss Grace and Mr. Kurtz Warner, of New Windsor; Mr. Geo. Motter, of Littlestown, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Schwartz, of White Hall, spent Sunday with Mr. Frank Warehime and wife, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Little and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Heagy, of Hanover, Pa., and Dr. J. W. Mehring, of Littlestown, Pa