and then struck the balance which he placed to a new Acct and the mead of cur. Charge Interest on this balance and which in fact was charging Interest on Interest — this Method was con tended for by Mr Randolph in his life time and since by his Executrix and state demands admitted — Mr Chester alledged this was not the manner of ~~subtracting~~ calculating Interest accounts amongst Merchts. and pointed out that the Debts due to the Partner= =ship of Stevenson Randolph & Chester had been settled another way & which was in the way Mr Chester had settled the Interest Account with Stevensons. Estate —
