1773-1774 [illegible]

SIDE ONE

house — M Carrol in Answer — That he sold the Fish to M Limes and ~~your bill of Credit~~ agreed the Payment for them should be deducted out of the last Payment. M Lynch was to Make Limes for the house agreable to directions from M Lynch which he did prove — the Reason was that the Fish was likely to be lost — ~~there was~~ Late in the season — & the new fishing Season coming on —

M. Lynch objects — That M Carrol drew two Bills on him for £60.11 each @ 90 days sight @ 2½ p C. exchange — when at the same time Lewis & Hall ~~drew~~ allow 66⅔ ch and at 60 days sight — Also ½ p C. too Much charged in the Commission for indorsing bills —

M Carrol says he could not get more than 62½ p C. at the time for the 2£60 Bills —

M Lynch objects to the charge of Nolans Notes for £205.6.7 — a Part of them being paid in Herrings and Shad — M Carrol says the Herrings & Shad are not to go in payment of them — because they were applied — & that it was in consequence of Letter from Nolan, that he sold the Fish to Limes agreable to M Lynch's directions —

M Lynch objects to the commission on the Shad & Herrings M Carrol says that matter is to be settled with Nolan — & therefore the Arbitrators not to consider it.

M Carrol demands Commission on the Rum Shipped on Board the Betsey ~~Last~~ Feby 1774 in consequence of M Lynch's Letter of 13 Sept. 1773 — M Lynch in Answer, that M Carrol has no Right to a Commission ~~only on the~~ any Rum that was put on Board —

Minutes of Examination