MEETING OF REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The members of the Republican County Central Committee, of Carroll county, will meet at the

FIREMEN'S HALL,

in Westminster, on

MONDAY, JULY 17th, 1905,

at 10 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

WALTER R. RUDY,
Chairman.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte has declined to accept passes from Railroads and other transportation companies. In this action he has set an example that can be followed to the advantage of the country, if not to the individual officeholder, who only receives the courtesy because he is expected to repay it by exerting an influence favorable to the power that extends it.

Postmaster General Cortelyou, who is still acting as chairman of the Republican National Committe, has appointed Hon. Stevenson A. Williams the member from Maryland as the successor of Judge Louis E. McComas, resigned. The appointment is about the best that could have been made. Mr. Williams is not affiliated with any faction and is not only a gentleman of ability, but an active party man who stands for the best and purest ideals in politics.

The Democratic party of Baltimore county, or, perhaps to speak more accurately, Hon. J. Fred. C. Talbott, held three conventions at Towson on Tuesday, but at neither of them was a word said about the disfranchising amendment. What does this silence mean? Was it feared that an endorsement of that measure might have weakened the ticket nominated by one of the conventions? These are questions which probably nobody but Mr. Talbott can answer, and it is very certain he will not answer them ingenuously.

At the Democratic judicial convention of Baltimore county, held at Towson on Tuesday, Associate Judge N. Charles Burke was endorsed as the party candidate for Chief Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit, and Mr. Frank I. Duncan received the convention's endorsement for Associate Judge as the successor of Judge Burke. These recommendations must be ratified by the joint convention of Baltimore and Harford counties, but their selection by Tuesday's convention is tantamount to their nomination. This action will retire Chief Judge David Fowler who has held that position for fifteen years and who was previously Associate Judge of the Circuit. Judge Fowler has many friends who will regret his enforced retirement from the bench.

All Southern Russia seems to be on the eve of revolt, but there is no concerted action among the malcontents and as the uprisings are irregular in occurrence they are suppressed by the military, usually after much bloodshed. The oppressed people of the Czar's dominions appear to be yearning for deliverance from the intolerable yoke of their oppressors; but they lack leadership and must fail without it. The mutineers of the battleship Potemkin, after sinking the ship, surrendered to the Roumanian government. What the outcome of all the agitation shall be is problematical. The government of Russia, however, is in a bad way and the lives of Russian officials are very uncertain. Count Shuvaloff, prefect of police at Moscow and a personal friend of the Czar, was shot and killed by an assasin on Tuesday.

THE RING EXISTS, NOTWITHSTANDING.

The Advocate affects to treat with contempt the article of the SENTINEL of two weeks ago on "Baltimore's Interest in Defeating the Amendment," and ridicules the charge that a Democratic ring exists whose purpose in seeking the adoption of the amendment is the perpetuation of its own power. "That bogy of a ring," says the Advocate "exists only in the imagination of the SENTINEL." It would be a poor compliment to the Advocate's intelligence to accept this assertion as its sincere belief. There is not a citizen of Maryland, who is well informed concerning the political conditions now existing in the State, who is not aware of the existence of the ring and its malign influence upon the welfare of the Commonwealth. This is so universally known that large numbers of prominent Democrats are antagonizing the amendment because of the power its adoption would confer upon the bosses or managers of the party, knowing that what these men have done they may be expected to repeat when the opportunity shall occur. The Democratic Attorney General, elected two years ago, has taken a decided stand against the amendment, and, while the Governor, elected at the same time, has not taken an open stand against it, it is generally understood that he is not favorable to the measure and will not vote for it, notwithstanding the Advocate says he is a party man and will do so. And the ring exists, notwithstanding the Advocate's assertion that it is only a bogy. If that paper is unaware of the fact it has been asleep longer than the twenty years that Rip Van Winkle was held in the thralldom of Somnus. Perhaps it may be awakened by a clap of thunder as loud as that which aroused Old Rip from his slumbers. The 7th of November will tell the story; and then, oh, for another Joe Jefferson to give it a proper stage impersonation.

Sakhalin Seized by Japanese.

The Japanese have seized the Island of Sakhalin and are said to be preparing to capture Vladivostok. If they succeed in this effort, which no doubt they will, it will shut Russia off from every Siberian port of importance. Japan appears to doubt the sincerity of Russia's desire for a cessation of the war on satisfactory terms to the victors, and will not consent to an armistice, but will, while negotiations for peace are pending, continue to press her advantage over the Russians. The peace commissioners will soon meet at a quiet place in New England; but some time will necessarily elapse before an agreement can be reached.

Another Powder Mill Explosion.

Another explosion occurred at the Rockdale Powder Mills, at Hoffmansville, Baltimore county, at 7 o'clock, Monday evening, of which the Baltimore American gives an account in which it is stated that it was the fifth explosion within a few months. This, however, we believe is an error. It was probably the fifth since the mills were established. The American gives the following description of the catastrophe and its effect:

"Eugene Abell, of Punxsutawney, Pa., and William Hoffer, of Hoffmansville, who are employed at the mills, were badly injured and two buildings were blown to pieces.

Abell's injuries will probably prove fatal. He is horribly mutilated and the flesh dropped from his bones when he was picked up in an unconscious condition. Hoffer was seriously burned about the head and body.

Fortunately the explosion occurred after the day force had left the mills and before the night force had come on. Twelve employes were about to enter the mills when the terrific explosion occurred which demolished the coining mill and the press-house. The explosion occurred in the latter place, which had five tons of powder stored in it.

The report of the explosion was heard for a long distance, and the earth shook as though there had been an earthquake.

Five serious explosions have occurred at the mills within a short time. At the explosion which preceded the one of yesterday afternoon a number of men received injuries and some of them died.

The mills are owned by York (Pa.) parties and are located on the site of the old Hoffman paper mill, and are equipped with costly machinery. The amount of the loss caused by the explosion could not be ascertained. It is not known how the explosion occurred.

Dynamite, as well as powder, is manufactured at the mills.

REFORMED REUNION.

Program of the Great Gathering at Pen-Mar Outlined.

From Public Opinion, Chambersburg, Pa.

Thursday, July 20th, 1905, promises to be the day for the largest and most interesting Reformed Reunion ever held in Pen Mar.

There are some features in this reunion that must easily put it ahead of all the past:

First. Three of the speakers are from China and Japan, and are full of fire and enthusiasm. Rev. Dr. Schneder will speak for Japan, than whom there is no one better qualified in this country.

Rev. Dr. Hoy will represent China, and all who have heard of the wonderful work of Dr. Hoy, will be delighted to hear him.

Rev. A. V. Casselman, who has spent some time in both China and Japan, will speak on "Oriental Lesson Lights," and the young orator will have the wrapt attention of the thousands.

Rev. Thos. L. Bickle, of Philadelphia, is a young man and a splendid speaker.

The Reformed church is at this time manifesting a power and an influence in China and Japan that will thrill the hearts of all who may hear these champions in the foreign field.

Second. The young ladies of the Woman's College of Frederick, Md., will have charge of the music, and hence a musical treat may be expected.

The officers and directors of the Reformed Reunion are as follows:

Rev. J. A. Hoffheins, President, Martinsburg, W. Va.; Rev. J. B. Shontz, Secretary, Chambersburg, Pa.; Rev. S. S. Brenner, Treasurer, Mechanicsburg, Pa.; Directors, Geo. A. Hollinger, Harrisburg; Niles M. Fissel, Carlisle; Rev. F. C. Yost, York; Rev. J. B. Stonesifer, Westminster, Md.; Rev. Robt. J. Pilgrim, Baltimore, Md.; D. M. Hurley, Hagerstown, Md.; W. C. Birely, Frederick, Md.; E. Cornman, Esq., Washington, D. C.; Howard E. Bair, Hanover; H. T. Weaver, Gettysburg.

Baltimore County Democratic Ticket.

Following is the Democratic local and legislative ticket nominated at Towson on Tuesday:

Register of Wills—Dr. John E. Bolte, of the Second district.

Sheriff—Jacob Elliott, of the Fifth district.

Treasurer—C. Lyon Rogers, Jr., of the Third district.

Surveyor—Charles B. McClean, of the Ninth district.

County Commissioners—George W. Yellott, of the Eleventh district; John V. Slade, of the Eighth district, and Henry P. Mann, of the Twelfth district.

House of Delegates—Albert F. Brunnier, of the First district; John Gephart, Third district; Harry E. Goodwin, Fourth district; James W. Ayers, Seventh district; Sylvester J. Roach, Ninth district; Carville D. Benson, Thirteenth district.

The Gettysburg, Pa., Star and Sentinel of Wednesday says: "That a disastrous railroad wreck was averted on the Western Maryland in the cut west of town Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock is indeed a miracle. Some evil disposed person or persons placed a large railroad tie across the track at the overhead bridge on Reynolds avenue, between twelve and two o'clock. The tie was not discovered until the engine of a heavy extra east bound freight was close upon it. The engineer reversed his engine but was unable to lesson the speed to a great extent before the tie was struck. Fortunately the train was brought to a standstill after the obstruction had been pushed along for about 1000 feet without any damage being done."

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Orphans' Court.

Monday, July 10th.—The last will and testament of Otta A. Shank, late of Carroll county, deceased, was exhibited in court and duly admitted to probate.

Geo. E. Cox, administrator, d. b. n. c. t. a. of Melchor Cox, late of Carroll county, deceased, settled 4th and 5th account.

The last will and testament of Sallie Longwell, late of Carroll county, deceased, was exhibited in court and duly admitted to probate, letters testamentary thereon being granted to Joshua W. Hering, who received warrant to appraise personal property and real estate and also order to notify creditors.

Tuesday, July 11th.—Harry S. Allison and Mary E. Smith, executors of Chas. D. Smith, late of Carroll county, deceased, received order of court to sell leasehold property and also order to sell bonds and stocks.

James E. Lowe, administrator of Nicholas Lowe, of Carroll county, deceased, received order of court to sell personal property.

Bankert's Mill Items.

After considerable trouble, caused by the wet spell, farmers have housed their grain and hay and a few are plowing preparatory to sowing for another crop. A few small crops have been threshed, and it is found that the grain is of a very superior quality, but the yield is far below the average.

Geo. C. Harman has a cow that gave birth to twin calves one day last week.

The growing corn is outdoing itself. We have never seen a brighter prospect for an abundant crop. The quantity of fodder will be immense. Pasture fields are heavily set in grass, and there are no indications of any scarcity in that direction. Garden and other vegetation is the finest for a number of years. Potatoes are reported very good. Fruit, such as apples and peaches, is suffering from the continued wet weather and fears are entertained that much of it may rot. Pears are a scarce commodity here.

The Joint Sunday School at Baust Church will hold its annual celebration on Saturday afternoon and night, August 12. Prominent speakers have been engaged. A band of music will enliven the occasion and no pains will be spared to make this the best ever held by the school. Ice cream and other confections will be on sale. It will be held in the grove of Mr. Jacob Rodkey, Jr., near Tyrone, and everybody is cordially invited.

Gamber Items.

Mt. Pleasant Sabbath School will hold its annual all-day picnic, in the grove adjoining the church, on Saturday, July 29th. The Pikesville Band will furnish music for the occasion. Come, bring your baskets and enjoy the day amid the cool shade beneath the stately oaks.

Mrs. Obadiah Buckingham is quite ill of heart trouble.

Mrs. N. Benson and Mrs. Abram Haines have returned home after spending some time in Baltimore.

County Commissioner Geo. E. Benson is having his buildings on his farm at Patapsco painted. Mr. Geo. A. Barnes is also having his new residence painted.

Mr. Jos. T. Parrish has erected a large barrack on his farm.

Measles are still raging throughout the neighborhood.

State Teachers' Association.

The annual meeting of the Maryland State Teachers' Association, which began at the Blue Mountain House on Tuesday evening, is progressing with unusual success, a result largely due to the efforts of Dr. S. Simpson, the superintendent of this county, who has worked early and late, for a long time past, to promote this effect.

The address of welcome at the opening session was delivered by Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, in his usual happy style. Mr. Francis A. Soper, president of Baltimore City College, responded, and President Smith, of the association, also made a short address.

At Thursday's sessions the speakers were: Gov. Warfield, Dr. G. W. Ward, of this city, the newly elected principal of the State Normal School; Dr. Charles C. Boyer, Prof. Charles T. Wright, superintendent of Harford county, and Mr. George F. Morelock, principal of the High School of this city. Mr. Morelock made a very admirable address, containing many suggestions of value to his fellow-teachers. Prof. Morelock also participated in the discussion of some of the topics considered by the association.

Among the teachers from this county appointed on committees are: Enrollment, Miss Celia M. Shower, of Manchester; English, Miss Ida F. Lockard, of this city; Geography, Levi D. Reid, Taneytown; Kindergarten, Miss Pearl Mercier, Woodbine; Mathematics, Prof. George F. Morelock, of this city; Manual Training, Prof. Everett A. Hidey, of this city.

It is stated that the election of Dr. Simpson, superintendent of this county, as president of the association for the ensuing year, is a forgone conclusion.

The meeting will be concluded this evening with a banquet. About 300 teachers have been in attendance.

Following is a list of names of persons from this county who attended the meeting:

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

Jacob H. Blocher, Peter Buchman, Theo. F. Englar, Fred D. Miller, John O. DeVries, John B. Eppley, Dr. S. Simpson, County Superintendent, and Geo. H. Caple, Assistant.

DIED.

Near Shipley, July 12th, 1905, Susan, widow of Burgess N. Williams, aged 77 years, 4 months and 24 days.

In this city, July 6th, 1905, Margaret, daughter of Wm. and Minnie McCarty, aged 10 months and 10 days.

In this city, July 10th, 1905, Madeline C., infant daughter of Geo. E. and Carrie E. Eckenrode, aged 7 months.

Death's cruel dart has pierced our hearts,
And bowed us down in grief;
For oh! beneath the silent sod,
Our darling Madalene sleeps.

By her Grandparents.

In loving remembrance of my dear mother, Elizabeth Barber, who departed this life four years ago, July 17th, 1901.

O! how I loved my mother dear,
No heart on earth can tell,
But Jesus loved her better,
And called her home to dwell with thee.

By her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Davis.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembradce of our dear daughter, Rosa Jenkins, who died two years ago, July 11th, 1903.

Thou hast left us, and we miss thee,
Sadly miss thee, Rosa dear;
In vain I listen for thy footsteps,
Still I am thinking thou art near.
How sadly we grieve for the loss of our dear daughter,
And many tears we have shed;
Our home is so gloomy which once was so bright,
Since our dear Rosa is dead.
