The Ground Caved In.

On Saturday evening last as Mr. Geo. C. Crass was walking along the railroad between his home, "Hollow Rock Farm," and the gas works of this city he noticed a large hole or cavity in the ground, partially under the siding and between that and the main track, and, upon examination, found that the earth had sunk down making a well or shaft about three feet in diameter. He promptly notified the railroad authorities of the occurrence and when the depth of the shaft was measured it was found to be about twenty-one feet. Further investigation showed a cavity leading directly under the main track and extending to an uncertain distance. During Sunday hundreds of persons from this city visited the scene and gazed with curiosity into the well, the sides of which were about perpendicular and even, with a smooth surface.

Much speculation was indulged in as to the cause of the "cave-in" and the opinion was advanced by some that it was due to a blind ditch excavated at the place many years ago. Others were inclined to the belief that the earth had dropped into a cavity of natural formation, as the spot is in the vicinity of extensive deposits of limestone and a cavernous condition is known to exist in the locality. Sinking of the limestone rock is not an uncommon occurrence, though the depth of the shaft left, in this case, is unusual. Following its discovery railroad trains were run over the place very slowly and every precaution necessary against accident was taken.

"Harry Westaway, 'front' clerk of the Hotel Chalfonte, married Miss Jennie L. May, of Chicago, who is worth, it is said, half a million, and resigned his position immediately after his wedding in the rectory of St. Nicholas' Catholic Church this afternoon. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Father Dailey, and the priest was given a generous remembrance by the smiling bridegroom, who to-day completed his happiness after a courtship which covered almost a year.

"Miss May is a handsome brunette, slight of figure, and 20 years old. The admiring glances of the bashful clerk, who hails from Carroll county, Md., where they first met, were returned, and before the bride of to-day was in the hotel a week the young couple were victims of Cupid's wiles.

"The girl bravely confided her love to her aunt, Mrs. Bradburn, whose guest she was. The aunt diplomatically secured the consent of her husband, but a calamity came which threatened to upset the plans. Mr. Bradburn died. This occurred some months ago, and the young couple waited and sighed.

"To-day the aunt was won over to their scheme of getting married and the knot was tied and the couple are on their way to Chicago, where they will permanently reside.

"The bride-groom is 25, genial and handsome. Mr. Bell, manager of the Chalfonte, is in fear tonight that he will be overwhelmed with applicants for the position which Westaway threw up to enter the enjoyment of wedded bliss and a fortune."

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Westaway, near Patapsco.

Mr. Harry Preston came home on Saturday last from Asbury Park, N. J., with a broken thumb and the tendons of the wrist injured so that he could not use the hand. He had gone to the park several months ago and became a conductor on a trolley car. On Thursday night about 12 o'clock he ran his car into the barn, and while adjusting the trolley with the rope stepped from the car into a pit about 9 feet deep and was hurt as above stated, which will lay him up for some time. He is a student of the P. and S. Medical School, Baltimore, and expected to put in his vacation at work at Asbury Park.

Mr. Geo. L. Hoffacker, near town, left on Monday last for Haverhill, Mass., where he has accepted a position in the Business College. He taught in Haverhill for a year after graduating in Baltimore, then went to Norfolk and thence to Trenton, N. J., but liking the northern climate better has gone back to Haverhill in a higher position than he first held.

While Mrs. Chas. M. Masenhimer was out horseback riding on Wednesday evening the horse became uncontrolable on the York Hill and ran into the woods where Mrs. M. jumped from the saddle, the horse jumping over her with no more bad result than the nervous shock that followed at her home. Dr. Preston rendered the necessary medical assistance.

Misses Florence and Carrie Warner, of Baltimore, are visiting their grandparents, Mr and Mrs. Noah Schaeffer, at their home on North Main street.

DEFERRED MANCHESTER ITEMS.

The week through was quite favorable in this section for the final ingathering and threshing of wheat, but the early threshers had trouble with their crops which was damp and not marketable except at half price. Good wheat at the station was quoted at 82 cents while 50 cents was only offered for new wheat.

The New Windsor Baseball team was here on Saturday, 15th inst., as stated last week, and crossed bats with our boys and gave them their medicine good and proper. They not only came to play ball but to win and did it in fine shape. They caught our boys all broke up, with second baseman sick, the first away, the left and center fielders absent and the pitcher partially on the sick list. It was quite a time before the managers could pursuade the regulars, with the substitutes, to tackle the visitors who were loaded up to the brim for a victory. When the game was called by umpire LaMotte the line up was:

Manchester.		New Windsor.
Myers	p	Danner
Therit	c	Hann
H. Miller	s s	Smith
Kneller	1 b	Babylon
Burgoon	2 b	Otto
Lawson	3 b	Barnhart
Wink	r f	Jones
LaMotte	l f	Bowers
Hassett	c f	Lantz

The score by innings was as follows:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total.
Manchester	0	0	5	1	0	1	1	1	0	9
New Windsor	1	4	1	1	3	3	0	0	4	17

There was quite a lot of kicking and the visiting pitcher left the box, threw down his glove and marched off the field, on account of a decision of the umpire that was safe, as he saw it from his position and would not retract. He deals square as he sees it and remains firm in his decisions whether in favor of home or visitors.

Our fishing club came home on Saturday after a ten-days' outing and all but one was laid up for repairs for several days. They had about a four bushel catch while absent and consequently were quite fishy.

Mr. C. D. Lippy comes to the front with a single layer, but with a big layer. He has an egg laid by one of his hens that measures 7¾x6¾ inches. How is that for "Big?"

JULY 28, 1905.

Carrollton Items.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt, and children, of Baltimore, are stopping with Mrs. Mary Taylor, near Wesley Church, for the summer. Mr. Brandt came up from Baltimore on Saturday, returning on Tuesday, leaving his wife and children to enjoy country life and air and he will visit them weekly.

The heavy rains recently have done much washing out of corn, potatoes and other products of the farm and a great deal of wheat has begun sprouting in shocks, causing loss to the farmers.

Mr. Benjamin Croft, road supervisor, with Simpson Ebaugh and Jerry Blizzard as workmen and with a team and a heavy plow, has been repairing the county road from Carrollton Station toward Wesley Church. A number of breaks in the road have been made to prevent washing.

The young men of the Manchester Fishing Club, who were encamped in the grove opposite Dreschler's mill dam, struck tents last Saturday and took their way homeward after a pleasant outing of ten days.

Fishermen are very numerous at times at Dreschler's mill dam where some fine carp, catfish and mullets have been caught.

The grove in which the annual celebration of Bethel Sunday School is to be held on Saturday next, 29th inst., has been put in good order. The stand and seats have all been put in proper shape, and a large attendance is expected from other Sunday Schools should the weather prove favorable.

Mr. J. C. Carlisle, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mr. John Algire, near Richards' mill, last week.

A Touching Letter.

Mrs. J. Wesley Zepp, near Finksburg, whose husband was accidentally killed by Lothar Henrici, several weeks ago, has received the following touching letter from that young gentleman:

Baltimore, July 9th, 1905.

Mrs. J. Wesley Zepp, Finksburg,
Carroll county, Md.

Dear Madam:—I trust you will pardon my writing, but I cannot refrain from expressing to you my heartfelt sympathy and sorrow for the affliction brought upon you by myself. That I too have suffered it is needless to say, but naturally my sorrow is nothing as compared with that caused yourself and family in being deprived of the love and presence of one so dear to you.

Could I do so, I would willingly restore him to you, even at the cost of my own life.

While my sorrow will follow me to the grave, I can never forget the manly and loving assurance of your son, that there is no feeling of malice or resentment among you and that you had forgiven me. For this I thank God. May He bless you and yours.

Respectfully,
LOTHAR HENRICI.

Bankerts' Mill Items.

I have been requested to say, through the columns of the SENTINEL, that all the members of Camp No. 10, P. O. S. of A., at Tyrone, will meet in Westminster, on Tuesday, August 8, to participate in the grand parade, which will take place at 6 o'clock, P. M., of that day. It is to be hoped that all the members will appreciate this invitation and lend their presence to swell the number and thereby make the parade a grand success.

Mr. Geo. C. Harman spent several days last week visiting friends and relatives in Hanover, Pa. He reports that Hanover is booming. Work is to be had for the asking. About 140 new buildings will be erected this season, a new park, facing on High Street one block south of the Pa. R. R., is being laid out, in which the fountain which did duty for many years at the well known square will be placed and in its place a monument will be erected by the State to commemorate the battle which took place there on the 28th of June, 1863, between Stuart's and Kilpatrick's Cavalry, in which engagement the rebels were compelled to retreat.

Mr. Rex Anders and Miss Grace Kane, of Westminster, visited at Mr. Geo. C. Harman's, last Sunday.

The harvest is past, the annual treat has been served by our farmers, and they are now busy making arrangements for another crop.

Shipley Items.

During the thunder storm of July 33rd, at 11½ P. M., lightning struck a large hay and grain barrack on the farm of Mr. Grove J. Shipley and set it on fire notwithstanding the rain was coming down in torrents. The fire spread from the barrack to the barn and hog house, setting them on fire. The barrack was 42x22 ft. and 16 ft. to the square and well finished and entirely inclosed, containing 200 bushels of grain in the straw; 7 tons of prime new hay; 12 bushels of threshed wheat and 4½ bushels of threshed rye. The building was a new structure costing in money $250, and contained about $350 worth of grain, hay and straw. The other buildings were proportionally large. The barn part was in size, 56x16 ft. and 14 ft. to the square, part of which was recently built. The building contained about 10 tons of new wheat straw and 3 tons of old hay, besides two mules, 4 head of cattle and 1 horse. The stock was rescued, but all the provender and building, together with forks, harness, etc., were consumed, worth about $450. The hog house and cattle shed attached to the north end of the barn, and forming a weathershed as well was 20x12 ft. and 10 ft. to the square, with a corn crib loft above and outpens well finished.

There was a lot of grain sacks, boxes and some binder twine in the loft and entry at the time of the fire, besides 4 head of fat hogs, weighing from 150 to 200 lbs., all of which were consumed except the hogs. The loss was about $150. The whole loss will probably exceed $1200. The insurance may be about $700.

It would be useless for your correspondent to try and describe the awfulness of the fire and its quick work and intense heat.

The thunder following the stroke that did the deed was terrific and it aroused Mr. Shipley, who was asleep at the time the lightning struck. He got up and looked out the front window of his bed room when he discovered the fire. After calling his family, they all hastened to the building to rescue the stock which was done at some risk of life. Had they been 5 minutes later in arriving at the barn the mules and horse could not have been rescued, and they were not insured.

The neighbors and friends began to arrive at quarter of 12 o'clock and by half past 12 A. M., there were 50 people present. The men, women and even the children labored faithfully to prevent the fire from burning the granary, corn house, wagon shed and other outbuildings. The fire lit up the earth for miles around, and the heat was intense, and as the wind was very high at the time from the southeast it carried burning debris for ½ mile to the northwest which fell on every building along its track. But for the heavy fall of rain during the fire and preceding it there would not have been one building left standing in our little village. Many thanks, to our neighbors and friends for their kindness.

Harvest is over again, the grain is stored away, our farmers are making ready to put out another crop of grain, and the corn is looking fine.

In the death of Mrs. Susan Williams we have lost a true friend and neighbor, the Deer Park M. P. Church, Smallwood, has lost one of its faithful and consistent members, the family a most devoted and affectionate mother, and the Ladies' Aid Society of Zion an honest, upright, and dutiful treasurer and member.

TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

I take pleasure in announcing that The Westminster Nursery, conducting its business on the Gorsuch road three-quarters of a mile from the corporate limits of the City of Westminster, Md., on the farm formerly owned by Wm. Struth, is now prepared to supply the trade with all stock furnished by a first-class nursery. All my stock is strictly true to label, clean and healthy.

The Nursery Packing Grounds have an ample supply of water on tap, which enables me to do packing for the proper preservation of the stock.

I was formerly a member of the firm composed of C. A. and J. E. Stoner, trading as "The Battlefield Nurseries," at Gettysburg, Pa., and will supply my trade also from my undivided one-half interest in the growing trees that belonged to the "Battlefield Nurseries," at the time of my retirement therefrom, May 17, 1905.

I shall pay strict and careful attention to the business and trade of a wholesale and retail grower of Select Nursery Stock. All my trees will be fumigated. My specialties are Strawberry, Raspberry and Asparagus Plants, Carolina Poplar, and the Breeding of S. C. White Leghorn and B. Plymouth Rock Poultry.

I invite the general public to trade with me. Your patronage is respectfully solicited and the best efforts will be made to please. All inquiries promptly answered; low prices extended; catalogue free.

Choice kind of Strawberry Plants supplied also, for Sept 1st planting.
