The Estate of

The Balance due William Randolph for his 1/3 of the debt. Stevenson Randolph of Chester received by Mr Chester as by an Account made out and undered Wm Randolph on the 13th July 1797 . . . . £37..16..3½

Expences to Octr. 18: 1797	£34..10..7
do — on Janry 9. 1798	0..9
do — on May 31st 1798	4..12..6
	£39-11..10

Received July 29th 1798 of Henry Griffith Garnishee of Perkins Buchanan & Brown £65..5..0 1/3 is . . . . . 21..15..0

	59..11..3½
Deducted the above expences	39..11..10
That the Balance due Estate of Wm Randolph at the time of Mr Chesters Decease	19-19..5½

NB. The Partnership of S. R. & Chester is ended May 2: 1797 with £51..10..6 rec.d of Edward Morris Esqr which appears to be an error this debt being due to William Stevenson & Co

The above improperly stated —
The receipts . . . . are . .	£65..5..0
The expences £39..11..10 is to be deducted out of the receipts fund	39..11..10
	25-13-2
Then Wm Randolphs one third of this sum is	8..11..0½
Add the Balance due Feby 13: 1797 of	37..16..3½
That is the true balance due Wm Randolphs Estate	£46-7..4
