Sundry Lucrei

Lucre No. 1

There appears on the books a balance of £43. 11. 6 due from Joseph Gallaway – As it will be known to the Family it was not Mr Chestons intentions to call for this debt – and had given it up – Is it necessary to ~~have~~ give it to the Orphans fund as a debt –

No 2

William Stevenson is dead and Insolvent – There is a Suit in Chancery in which his Estate is interested. should it be recovered there will be a prospect to be applied in discharge of this Claim of Mr Chestons – But as there is no knowing when the Suit will be determined and as the Administratrix wishes to close the administration as soon as possible in what manner shd this debt be given in to effect this purpose? – as dead & Insolvent –

No 3

The £12. 9. 9. was Interest due on a bond which was omitted at the Settlement with Mr Harrison and the bond given up – Can he called for in the any property?

No 4 –

These Debts have arisen from goods consigned to William Harry and sold by him and between friends by Dan. Chester – but there is also Accounts in Mr Chestons books against these persons – but it is supposed they must be given in to the orphans fund under cloaks with the other debts –

No 5

This Account appears to have been raised to shew what was the Amount of the debts due to the partnership and also to shew what part of them belonged to Mr Chester – it is supposed there be unnecessary to give this in?

No 6

Inquiry to be made in the Family as most of the others are left behind. it is supposed there is nothing due from Mr. Bentley

No 7

Mr Chester as Surviving partner of the House of Stevenson Randolph & Chester had the direction of the business in this Country and indeed before the decease of the other partners – all Specialties in existence in his name and Suits brought – there is Lucrative arises some very debts belonging to the Partnership to be given in – if they so are the whole or only Mr Chestons proportion –
