Election TUESDAY, November 7th.

A picture of Gorman, Raisin, Poe, Vandiver, Baughman, Brown, Miles and a few other Democratic leaders fleeing before a couple of colored men and shrieking, "save us from negro domination," would be a truthful and realistic cartoon of the present status of the Poe amendment. Surely five white men, and they bosses, should not be in deadly apprehension of subjection to one member of the negro race. Yet that is about the size of the plea for the adoption of the Poe amendment.

Mr. Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic Central Committee continues to reiterate the assertion that the "Understanding Clause" of the Poe amendment is identical with that of the new constitution of Virginia. This statement of Mr. Vandiver has been repeatedly challenged and its truth denied by persons claiming knowledge of the Virginia constitution; but he has taken no steps to produce the necessary proof to back his assertion. He could readily have procured, for publication, the clause of the Virginia organic law to which he refers, but he is content to rest the case on his own unsubstantiated word. That word is of little value in a contest in which its author, like the balance of the gang, has grown desperate and is determined to win, no matter how or upon what false pretences.

One week from Tuesday next will see the end of the remarkable political campaign now on in Maryland. The voters of the State are brought face to face with a proposition designed to curtail their privileges and to divest them of rights which, if not inherent, are guaranted by the time honored Bill of Rights adopted as a preface to the Constitution of the State. Whatever may be said of the right of the colored man in this respect, there can be no question of the right of the white man, having the qualifications of age and residence, to participate in elections in this State. Neither is there any question that the Poe amendment proposes to abridge the rights of certain white citizens now entitled to the suffrage. The disfranchisement of colored citizens could not be otherwise accomplished. This fact has been at last recognized by the Democratic bosses, but they still hold, or pretend to hold, that the disabilities of these white men will be made inoperative by the officers of registration. This is a bold proposition, indeed, inasmuch as it involves the committal of willful perjury by these officers. This should be enough to make every honest voter resolve to cast his ballot against the amendment.

SENATOR RAYNER AND EX-CONGRESSMAN MILES.

Senator Rayner's address to the Democrats of Maryland, in which he forcibly assails the Poe amendment, has proked numerous wordy attacks upon the Senator and his utterances from friends of the measure. Probably the most conspicuous of these attacks is contained in an open letter from Hon. Joshua W. Miles, published in The Sun of Tuesday last. Mr. Miles' letter deals chiefly with alleged actions and promises of Mr. Rayner during his canvass of the Legislature of 1904 for the senatorial election, and contains very little in the way of a real answer to the senator's argument against the amendment. The gist of the letter is a charge that Rayner offered to enter into a written agreement to take the stump in advocacy of the Poe amendment and to favor the nomination of Senator Gorman for the Presidency, provided Mr. Gorman would lend his aid in securing his (Rayner's) election to the United States Senate.

To these allegations Senator Rayner replies in a letter to the people of Maryland which made its appearance in the Baltimore daily papers of Wednesday. In the letter the Senator flatly denies both these allegations and backs his denial with facts and figures calculated to confirm his statements. In reference to the Poe amendment he says he never had any conversation with Mr. Miles on the subject and shows that, while he was elected Senator on the 4th of February, the amendment was not considered in caucus until three weeks later.

It matters very little, however, what Mr. Rayner's attitude on the subject was in February, 1904, or whether that gentleman is inconsistent in his opposition to the amendment. The force of his address to the people, condemning the measure, lies in his clear, logical and unanswerable statement of its effect generally upon the rights of voters, and his cogent reasoning in reaching that conclusion. In this respect his address is invulnerable and its force cannot be broken by personal assaults upon the author. Nothing could more forcibly illustrate the weakness of the amendment cause than this resort to personalities.

Not styled sapient but this I saw;

AN ACT to amend Section 34 of Article 3 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the members of the two Houses concurring), that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an Amendment to the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, it shall supercede and stand in the place and stead of Section 34 of Article 3 of said Constitution.

JOHN M. ROBERTS, President;
HENRY S. MUSSELMAN,
J. THOMAS ROOP,
Board of Supervisors of Elections of Carroll County, Md.

And now Ex Governor Wm. Pinkney Whyte, that veteran and consistent Democrat, has announced his intention to vote against the Poe amendment. It may be taken for granted that any party proposition that cannot be swallowed by the venerable Ex-Governor, must be very bad indeed, and his defection ought to count for thousands of Democratic votes against the amendment.

Every Republican should cast his ballot against the iniquitous Poe amendment, but he should not stop at that. The surest way to prevent further trickery with the ballot and with the law governing elections, is to defeat the Democratic candidates for the House of Delegates, and the Republicans should exert all their energies to aid in the defeat of the amendment and to elect a Republican legislature.

The official nominations, constituting, with the pending amendments, a sample of the official ballot to be voted at the election, November 7th, will be found in the advertising columns of the SENTINEL this week. The ballot contains the names of all the candidates of the several parties. For a short period yesterday there was some apprehension among Republicans that the names of Mr. Jacob B. Lynerd, for the House of Delegates, and Mr. Calvin R. Chew for County Treasurer, might be excluded from the ballot, as some informality had occurred in reporting the withdrawal of Dr. Daniel F. Shipley and Mr. John D. Engle, from the ticket, and in certifying the nominations of their successors. The Election Supervisors were advised by Attorney General Bryan that the law had not been observed in this respect, and that the names could not be lawfully printed on the ballot. The Republican authorities however took the matter in hand, obtained and filed proper certificates of withdrawal and nominations, and the names appear on the official list published by the Election Supervisors.

John M. Simpers was hanged in the jailyard at Elkton, on Friday last, for the murder of Hon. Albert Constable, of that place. Simpers shot and robbed Mr. Constable in a public road near Elkton on the evening of August 18, 1904. He expressed little regret for his crime and went to the gallows without exhibiting the slightest fear. He refused to confess the murder and while putting on the clothes in which he was hanged laughed and said: "Ain't this a joke, dressing for one's own funeral."

George Bentley and Charles Washington, both colored, were fined $25 and costs Monday morning by Justice Loden of the Western Police Station, Baltimore, on the charge of disturbing the peace. Bentley is from Mount Airy, and he went to visit Washington at his home on Arch street. Their Sunday afternoon tete-a-tete became embittered during a discussion regarding a woman, and a free fight ensued. When arrested Washington had his pockets filled with brickbats, and Bentley was alleged to have used a good supply of similar missiles.
