ELECTIONS IN OTHER STATES.

By the election for mayor and other officers in New York City McClellan, the Tammany candidate, was elected over Hearst, Ind. Dem., and Ivins, Rep., by a small plurality.

The Democrats carried Ohio by a small plurality, defeating Governor Herrick for re-election.

A fusion ticket was elected in Pennsylvania over the Republican nominee and Philadelphia gave upwards of 40,000 for the Citizens' ticket. The fight was against the notorious Republican Ring, not against the party or its principles.

New Jersey went Republican by increased majorities, and the republicans reclaimed Massachusetts and elected their candidate for Governor by a large majority. The Republicans also carried Rhode Island by 3,000, and the Republican City ticket, in Chicago, was elected by 20,000.

Virginia is Democratic, of course, and the ma jority is placed at 35,000.

THE RESULT IN CARROLL.

While the result in Carroll is not, generally speaking, very satisfactory to the Republicans, it is in some respects, a great victory. The election of two of the Republican candidates for the House of Delegates, and the large majority against the Poe Amendment are matters of congratulation as evidences of the hostility of the people to Gormanism. It is generally conceded that on a full vote there is a Democratic majority of 100 to 150 in the county; but in the face of this a majority of 565 votes is rolled up against the amendment fathered by Mr. Gorman, and two of the candidates representing Gormanism have been snowed under by Republican and Independent Democratic ballots. This was done, too, in the face of an active and aggressive campaign on the Democratic side, while on the part of Republicans, for some cause, the election went almost by default. The SENTINEL, as its readers know, made a most earnest effort to defeat the amendment, constantly counseling its readers, Republican and Democratic, to vote against it and for the Republican candidates for the Legislature. Leading Democrats admit that this was the most serious obstacle in their way and helped to pile up the great majority against the amendment, and to weaken their legislative ticket. While the defeat of the other Republican candidates is to be regretted there is sufficient in the result to encourage the Republicans to renewed efforts, and also to admonish them to bury factionalism and come together in honest efforts to add the county wholly to the Republican column.

THE MARYLAND ELECTION.

Poe Amendment Defeated.

MAJORITY AGAINST IT IMMENSE.

Carroll Helped to Kill the Reptile.

The People Strong For the Rights Denied Them By Gormanism.

The most important feature of Tuesday's election in this State was the Poe Disfranchising Amendment, and the people have given their condemnation of that iniquitous measure in overwhelming fashion, the majority against it being about 30,000. The other amendment was also defeated by a very large majority.

On the general vote the Democrats have re-elected Comptroller Atkinson by a plurality estimated at 6,510 and have also secured a majority in both Houses of the Legislature, although the Republicans have gained fourteen or fifteen members in the House of Delegates, and several in the Senate, only 2 of the holdover Senators being Republicans, while the body will stand 18 Democrats, 9 Republicans. The several counties will be represented in the two Houses as follows:

SENATE:

Allegany—Dem.
Anne Arundel—Dem.
Baltimore City—Three Dems., 1 Rep.
Baltimore—Dem.
Calvert—Rep.
Caroline—Dem.
Carroll—Dem.
Cecil—Rep.
Charles—Rep.
Dorchester—Rep.
Frederick—Rep.
Garrett—Rep.
Harford—Rep.
Howard—Dem.
Kent—Dem.
Montgomery—Dem.
Prince George's—Dem.
Queen Anne's—Dem.
Somerset—Dem.
St. Mary's—Rep.
Talbot—Dem.
Washington—Dem.
Wicomico—Dem.
Worcester—Dem.

Hon. Wm. B. Baker is the Republican Senator just elected in Harford county.

The House will stand as follows:

	Dem	Rep.
Allegany	..	5
Anne Arundel	2	2
Baltimore city	10	14
Baltimore County	6	..
Calvert	..	2
Caroline	..	2
Carroll	2	2
Cecil	1	2
Charles	..	2
Dorchester	3	1
Frederick	..	5
Garrett	..	2
Harford	4	..
Howard	2	..
Kent	2	..
Montgomery	3	1
Prince George's	3	1
Queen Anne's	3	..
Somerset	3	..
St. Mary's	2	..
Talbot	3	..
Washington	..	5
Wicomico	3	..
Worcester	3	..
Total	55	46

Four of the Democrats are classed as Independents. The delegation from Carroll county is equally divided, as will be seen by the official table of the vote in the county.

One important effect of the Republican gains in the Legislature will be to prevent the submission of disfranchising amendment at the election in 1907, as it requires three-fifth of the members of both Houses to pass a law for that purpose.

In several of the counties of the State the official count of the vote cast last Tuesday was not completed. The figures so far ascertained give the results for Comptroller of the Treasury and on the suffrage amendment as follows:

FOR COMPTROLLER.

Atkinson, Dem	90,982
McCullough, Rep	83,587
Atkinson's majority	7,395

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

For suffrage amendment	70,064
Against amendment	100,098
Majority against amendment	30,034

SHE DIED TO SAVE OTHERS.

Mrs. Alma Hake, who was nursing Mrs. Albert Rodgers and her babe, of Gettysburg, Pa., was fatally burned at the home of Mr. F. W. Mitten, father of Mrs. Rodgers, in that place, last Friday, in a desperate and successful attempt to save her charges from a similar fate. The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel, in its account of the accident, says that "to make the sick room comfortable a coal oil stove was used, the oil of which had become exhausted. Mrs. Hake, supposing that she had extinguished the flame, was filling the tank when the fluid ignited. Realizing the danger of her patients, and knowing full well that she herself would suffer, she picked the blazing stove up and, there being no access to windows, started down stairs with it. In an instant her garments were afire, and by the time she reached the room below they were entirely consumed and her body was burned to a crisp in many places. Her hair was burned off and her face horribly disfigured."

Mrs. Hake died six hours after the accident. She was a trained nurse and her heroic and self-sacrificing act stamped her as a noble and most estimable woman, and she is so described in the account given of the sad occurence in the Gettysburg newspapers. Mrs. Rodgers and her parents are natives of this city.

Rev. Edward E. Blint, who has resigned the pastorate of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, at Littlestown, Pa., to accept a unanimous call to Hebron Lutheran Church, at Leechburg, Armstrong county, in that State, preached his farewell sermon to a large audience last Sunday morning.

For the Sentinel.

Echoes of The "Poe Amendment."

Now good friends the election is o'er
And the Democrats are sore.
All on account of their cherished plan
To disfranchise the colored man.

This plan adopted the name of "Poe,"
But the people said "it must not go."
So they got together their ballots white
And buried the amendment out of sight.

When it was presented to good Governor "Ed,"
He says, "My friends, this thing is dead;
I can't indorse so vile a scheme
For purity of ballot has been my theme."

Then Rayner, the sage of Baltimore,
Said, "Such things as these make me sore:
What I will do you'll quickly see
In spite of Poe and Arthur P."

Then Arthur raved and Murray swore
What they would do to Isidor
For fighting against their pet plan
And scaring away the "bogey man."

Poor Rasin says "I'm not so Free
To think and act as I used to be,
For the edict of Arthur is thus and so
You must support our John P. Poe."

Then Joshua from the Eastern Shore
Says "I'll get after this Isidor;
But Rayner only smiled and lent
His force to defeat the amendment.

Now Colonel Vic and Murray V.
Are both as scared as scared can be;
For they expect, at any day,
That the colored man will have full sway.

Then Charles, and Guy and Mike came down
From our own good county town
And said to our people, this you must do
Or else the bogey will catch you too.

But all they said was of no avail;
We will not worship your idol, baal:
So back to their homes in discontent
This learned trio in silence went.

Now, poor Gorman has gone and hid,
Ashamed of the many things he did;
To future hopes he has bid farewell
And o'er his grave we hear this knell:

"The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley."
