SIDE TWO

The peaches were excellent tho: a little riper than of course they wd have been, sooner had they arrived — The hams were really in high perfection - never were better tasted thank you very much for both —
My Brother may depend upon a cheese with the other things — He is a sad man never to give me a line - & I should grumble much more at it than I do, if it wd'nt be giving my own good Dear a slap in the face, who is the very laziest fellow in that way that ever lived, & don't twice in a year put pen to paper to any body - tho: strongly interested for some few, whose welfare he is ever glad to hear of — Your family, & our Indian Boy, of course holds the first place with us - & your letters are a great comfort to us both - I have very lately heard from said Boy - he is in perfect health & doing well — I shant forget my promise when I can find a little leisure — Kindest Love to your boy, to whom I mean to introduce myself in good time. - We are going to spend a few days with old friends of mine at Greenwich & I am expecting every instant to be call'd for - so that I am hurry'd every way — We are both well - & as little to complain of, as most people in this odd fluctuating world - If he could but draw a few people I could name, into our Portrait I wd enoy

no one

My very kind Compts attend Mrs Ringgolds family - pray tell Miss R - a balance will remain in my hands of 2 or 3 pnd so beg when you send she will name anything she wd wish to have —
I hope I am accurate in my accounts if I ever am not - correct it for I am such a busy body that have often much business to do for different friends that live out of Town & therefore may be in danger of sometimes blundering —
& now my Dear Mrs Thorton for the time Adieu - God Bless you & all around you - & present to each as intitled to it, the affectionate Love & kind Wishes of your Friend & Sister Affectionately
