SIDE TWO

any other way than thro' through your medium begging he will accept a set of Books intitled the Loiterer &c — Written by our young friend Wm Roberts son of my Brothers old friend who I dare say he has not forgot — I think you will all find great Entertainment in them & allow them to be a wonderfull production for a man under five & twenty — & will literally no more aid. than he himself states in his last paper — Beresford who he names — is also a most brilliant genius — very distinct from the other as you will perceive, his fort being humour — The papers on Modern ~~[illegible]~~ Biography — Modern Novel Writing, life of Barrington in the Style of Gibbon — Parody upon Milton Allegro — & the Taylors Song & serious comment thereon will speak for him — Some of the prettyest poetry is by a very partic-ular friend of mine (a female I should say) & one who can make a shirt or a shift as well as I can, that can merely read these matters if they afford to each an hours entertainment I shall be pleased I sent them — I am tired of telling you I am always in a bustle yet so it is — The box & all must be with the addisons this ev.g & early — It may not therefore be much amiss to say who the contents are for I send it to you not knowing how else to have it conveyed to Mr Tinsley Tilghman who has had 3. 12. 6 laying quietly in my hands a chance time — which I have now bestowed to expend in the manner you will see & hope she will approve — I thought a smart bonnet might be more acceptable than anything else — 2 Coloured ones are borne entirely — Yellow prevailing, So tey it may not be taken as a proof my taste is a gaudey one — you may think the bill deep — but it is Moderate — I will if possible give Mrs Tilghman a few lines, She will find by the enclosed bill — that the bonnet sash to match — Pink ribbon — veil & yellow handkt are her lawfull property — a Balance of 13. belongs to your Lasses from the 5. 10. sent at the same time — which I have they will see, sent in ribbon also — thought they would like that as well as anything — Cloaks she sent before 4. 16. 6 which added will make the exact sum — Our account stands thus I believe — pray correct if I err Mistake —

	£	s	d
Rd in 94. bill 55 — Articles sent — —	52	13	4
Balance for my 2-16-6 on last acc.t	1	12	6
Mr Brooks for Shipping ~~for sh sent Feb.y~~ —		18	6
Ditto for those sent in Feb.y —	1	0	8

Very classically settled indeed — but have no time for anything but accuracy — which I hope you will find — I always think the freight & Shipping comes to a monstrous deal — but my Agent Mr Brooks who always manages that part of it — says it cant be less — so I submit — I shall by the first Autumn ship send a Cheese — the last year me & my affairs were too much in a state of derangement to do or think of anything or
