1795 Anne [illegible]

SIDE ONE

Mrs Ann Chew
Rhode Island
Mr Harrison

Chew Farm Monday Morning July 28th 1795

My Dear Sister –

I expected to have been in town Sunday some Days ago, but have been prevented by a long Harvest, and shall not have it in my power to go down the Country in less than a Fortnight, if so soon. a Division of Chew Farm being about to take place between the Sisters, of the three Thousand Acres of it given to them by Mr B Chew, it is absolutely necessary I should be attending: General Spriggs & my Friend Mr Paul Hoye are the Characters chosen for said purpose. I am in hopes we shall be able to accomplish the Business in the above said Time, immediately after which, I shall pork to the Ridge – 12/6 has been offered for Wheat, indeed it is said – but I believe 15/ will be had – the Crop [illegible] was not so large as was expected – we sh[illegible] handsome sum of Money by our Farm th[illegible] than any Rent would yield us that is [illegible] extremely happy to hear that our Dear Lit[illegible] in a State of Recovery – remember us aff[illegible] at Tulip Hill and the Neck. Henry [illegible] falls away from an Horse to a Cart Lond[illegible] Life. we did not see my Uncle. he [illegible] you will be much pleased with [illegible] House and everything very genteel abo[illegible] lar and takes the Lead without assuming [illegible] Since [illegible] they work up and Mr J[illegible]