SIDE ONE

Mrs Preston

[1800?]

My dear Madam

I fear you will think me very inattentive to your kind enquiries two days ago, but your note was folded in the newspapers in such a manner, that I did not see it — & laid both away together.

I am happy to tell you the dear Children have no unfavourable symptoms yet — Tom we think has not taken the infection.

We hope to hear Mr. Preston is better & Young & the young Ladies well — last night our Friends arrived from Baltimore — Mrs Dickey is with
