upon his finances it must be some years yet before he can have the enjoyment which he is peculiarly gifted for, from domestick fire side, but he is working hard to obtain this end — & his attachment to us is predominent in his mind as it was in early life — this is very gratifying — Good Wonder perhaps I have not said nothing of our present fears apprehensions of what our terrible Neighbours mean to do with us — Invasion is now more than ever expected, but we have thought & thought till they no longer know what to think — in general I fancy feel pretty confident in their having stout defenders — for soldiering & volunteering seems the whole business of life at present — & no doubt very necessary it should be so — I have no ideas of personal danger — but such an event would create sad confusion — & at any rate would increase our at present very heavy burthens — If Bonaparte is as we as I fear he is — he will keep the rod suspended over our heads — but not let it fall in a hurry — I think sometimes world wanted a little scourging — & it may be purified by it severe while it is going on — time each bears has a report Mr & Mrs Valany was coming land with their boys — I had great pleasure in the thought ing her again — to tell her with my kind remembrances remember me to all the Treasures under what ever happy doke at the Wales I conclude ever journey to this Country read I should hear from or see them — I must now dear ines bid you Adieu — & only beg you to believe me your ever faithful & affectionate Sister &
