SIDE TWO

at all suit me — we have had a long spel of rainy weather, sometimes cold enough for a fire, and scarcely noing in the Morning what to escpect in the evening - the Farmers have lost much of their Hay, or have been obliged to put up what has been very indifferent. we began to cut our yesterday they tell me it is very fine. I have only three Acres - but you no that is a pretty good crop in Town - Charles and him companion will finish to night - the Sun is now and I hope will contin[illegible] bright and warm — about ten ol[illegible] began to clout over [illegible] there was a dampness in the air, but it has past and [illegible] look forward to a bright afternoon — I think I mentioned my Sister in my last letter that Ann Drummond would accompany me when I come down, they all talk much of you but they say only Ann will tell Aunt Thomson alludeing to theirs going to the West — my dear Sister what a wandering World our [illegible] been a thousand - and fifteen Hundred miles, is now talked of with more ease than in our day our trip to Philidelphia. you no we were great travellers when we returned - last night my Nephew Alexander Fitzhugh got up. he is on his way to Jackson - on the Mississipi. I dont no how many Hundred miles — he brought me a long letter from his Mother, with all a Mothers feelings — Mrs Tilball was here a day or two ago. but I forgot to ask her about her Sons, return. I heard she expected him in this Fall — I wish to make many inquiries about my good Friends in your neighbourhood. but I will have companion on your eye and patience. — only my Love to all - but how is Mary Ann Murry, I hope she is better — God bless you my dear Sister — adieu to the Girls
