SIDE TWO

had seen Mrs Hollon who had just got a letter from her Daughter who is spending the Winter in Philadelphia - she says Ann Morris is pretty well then cross and quite well going all about also Mary and Anne's little Children - but I dare say this is old News to you - has Mrs Cleston heard lately from her Sister Thomas - when you write which I hope you will do soon - dont forget to let me no - also the old Lady who was very sick when I last Baltimore - I hope your own Health has been good through the winter - we have been very Healthy in Hagerstown tho there was two Burials yesterday - one was an old Lady 90 years old, one of my first Neighbours when I [illegible] Town 34 yrs ago - my Neighbors Mrs Holloday is now in the Country with her Brother for some weeks I suppose the House she was living in was sold on the first of this Month - and the one they will now go into is but lately finished so damp that old Gilgaman would not concent to her going there heavily her Furniture is sent in and the windows opend every day - Mary Hammond was also obliged to move under the same circumstances - but fortunately the Gentleman owning the new house that she has rented at 100 $ the year - has a much larger House perfectly dry and ready for rent - but as no Tennant has offerd for it - he lets Mary go into it till he has or till there is really - please to give my love to Mr Cleston - I have got all the things safe that he kindly sent me - when you write please to say how all our West River friends are - Mrs Beatty and Chain have been confined almost the winter with bad colds - I am happy my dr Sister to tell you my poor Nephew Alexander Fitzhugh - has returned perfectly recovered - and has spent three weeks with his Sister Henrietta with me this winter — do my Sister if you can read this throw it in the Fire as soon as you have done - my eyes painfully my right one is so bad I cant see I write by guess - give my very affectionate love to Mrs M Cleston - tell her I am glad to no June is creeping on - Love to the Gentleman
