From a sketch of State Senator Blair Lee, of Montgomery county, published in the Baltimore Sunday American, it appears that he is connected with the descendants of Gen. Mordecai Gist, of Revolutionary fame. The sketch says "it is through the Gist family that Mr. Lee has a distinguished Maryland ancestry. One of his grandmothers on his mother's side was a Gist, a member of that family which produced Gen. Mordecai Gist, Ensign Nathaniel Gist, John Gist and Col. Thomas Gist, of South Carolina. It was Gen. Mordecai Gist who, with his Marylanders, bore the brunt of the attack on the American Army on Long Island." The sketch should have also included Col. Joshua Gist, a Revolutionary hero, who was the father of the late Col. Joshua Gist, of this county. The late Mordecai Gist, most of whose children reside in the vicinity of this city, was the grandson of Gen. Mordecai Gist. One of their two little children, aged eight months, was sitting at a table in a high chair and the other, a couple of years old, was lying beside the body of its mother on the floor. Both the little ones were well nigh perished as the fire had been burned out for hours and it was intensely cold.

John Heagy.

Mr. John Heagy, a vereran soldier of the Civil War, died at his home near the pool of the Westminster Water Company, very suddenly, of disease of the heart, on Monday morning, at the age of 85 years. Mr. Heagy enlisted in Co. A, Sixth Maryland Regiment, August 20, 1862, and served until the close of the war, his discharge dating June 21, 1865. He was in all the battles in which the gallant Sixth Regiment participated and was a brave and faithful soldier. It was his good fortune to pass through all the perils incident to an active soldier's life, without receiving a wound. He was a member of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city. He leaves a widow, two daughters and two sons, all adults. Funeral services were held at Pleasant Grove M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon, and the remains of the venerable soldier were interred in the cemetery adjoining the church.

After the business of the society was transacted a program of music, reading and speeches was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, chocolate, coffee, cake and fruits were served. It was indeed a delightful social afternoon, full of "Auld Lang Syne" friendship and hospitality. Those present were: Mesdames Elizabeth Owings, Scott Lloyd, Carrie Stoner, J. W. Robertson, N. Westminster Cemetery Company.

The annual meeting of the lotowners of the Westminster Cemetery Company was held at the First National Bank of Westminster on Tuesday evening, at which time the president and managers for the ensuing year were elected and other business transacted. Mr. H. B Grammer was called to the chair and Mr. John J. Reese appointed secretary. Messrs. Denton S. Gehr and I. Scott Jordan were appointed tellers and the election resulted as follows: President, Dr. J. W. Hering; managers, Messrs. George R. Gehr, F. K. Herr, John Bernstein, Chas. C. Gorsuch, U. L. Reaver, and John J. Reese. The president submitted his report, as follows:

Office of the Westminster Cemetery Company,
Westminster, Md., February 8th, 1906.
To the Lotowners of the Westminster Cemetery Company:

We have come to the close of another year in the affairs of the company, and it becomes my duty, as President, to lay before you a brief report of its condition.

During the year, Mr. John L. Reifsnider, who was for many years president of the company, and a most capable and efficient officer, was removed by death. At the first meeting of the Board after this event suitable resolutions of respect to his memory were placed upon the minutes, published in the papers of the city and a copy sent to the family of the deceased. I can only repeat here our sorrow at the death of one who had for so many years been prominent in the management of the affairs of the company, and our pleasant recollections of our association with him in the Board.

The duties of the presidency were placed upon me, and Mr. Upton L. Reaver was elected to take my place in the Board.

The general work of the company has progressed satisfactorily, and we think the grounds never looked better than during the past summer.

Some improvements have been added which we think will be appreciated by the lotowners. A suitable tent has been purchased, which will be used when the weather is inclement, in sheltering the family and friends during interment. We have also procured a large, heavy canvas, upon which dirt will be thrown in digging the graves, so as to protect the grass and shrubbery.

We have continued to remove from the grounds such trees as were unnecessary and unsightly, and we hope during the coming summer to continue macadamizing the roads. We think this ought to be carried on until all the driveways are thus covered.

The remains of 33 persons have been interred during the past year, in ages ranging from 9 days to 95 years. The aggregate of the ages of 18 of these persons was 1414 years, or an average of 78 years 6 months.

The aggregate of the ages of 12 of the oldest of those whose remains were interred was 962 years, or an average of 80 years and 2 months. We think this is a record of longevity that is quite remarkable.

Of the number interred: 16 were from Westminster, 3 from the vicinity of Westminster, 5 from Baltimore, 2 from Sandyville, 2 from Washington, D. C., and 1 each from Bruceville, New Windsor, Philadelphia, Lima, Ohio, and California.

Our financial condition is very satisfactory. We have no indebtedness and an invested fund of $1,100 and a balance of 27.42 in the treasury.

The superintendent has performed his duties to the satisfaction of the Board, and so far as we know, to the satisfaction of the lotowners as well.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. HERING, President.

The newly elected managers met after the close of the meeting and elected Mr. John J. Reese, secretary and treasurer, and Mr. Theodore S. Mitten, superintendent.

Mr. John Tracy died at his home, near Lineboro, on Thursday night, 1st inst., at the age of 73 years, from heart disease. He had been ailing for a year or more but was able most of the time to be about and superintend his affairs until within several days before his death. He was a native of that section and for a number of years carried on flour milling, then, becoming possessor of the Grove paper mills, was engaged in that business also; but after the roller process became so prominent he changed the paper mill into a roller mill which proved a success. He was a strong Democrat and always took a deep interest in the councils of his party. In 1895 he was an unsuccessful candidate for Judge of the Orphans' Court. He was a member of the Lutheran Church at Lineboro and prominent in all its affairs. His remains were interred on Sunday in the presence of a large concourse of friends, Rev. H. H. Flick officiating. Jacob Wink had charge of the funeral.

It became the sad duty of the representatives of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F., to pay the last tribute of respect to one of their semi-centennarian members, in the person of Mr. Ephraim Sharrer, who died at his home near Roller, this district, on Friday, the 2nd inst. January 25th he stood at the open grave of his bosom companion, in his usual good health, but the following day he was suddenly taken ill from a bad cold which soon ran into pneumonia and pleurisy, causing his death at 74 years, 1 month 29 days. His remains were interred on Monday, at St. Peter's Church, Baltimore county, beside his wife, Rev. Groce, of the Lutheran Church, Hampstead, officiating, in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives. Mr. Sharrer was a prominent citizen in his section in church and society. He was quiet and unassuming and went about doing his duty as he saw it. He leaves two sons and three daughters, 25 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Howard Menchey, one of our stock and horse dealers met with a singular and what might have been a serious accident on Friday evening of last week. He was leading a horse by a long rope behind his buggy and stopped at Maple Grove in conversation with Mr. Henry Wink, when the horse suddenly flew back, catching the rope under the wheel of the runabout and upsetting it. Mr. Menchey was thrown out and fell with his face against the teeth of a newly filed crosscut saw in the hands of Mr. Wink, cutting his forehead quite badly. The bleeding was profuse, and required quite a time to stay it with the means at hand. Mr. M. then came home and had his wounds properly dressed and is doing well at this writing.
