SIDE ONE

I have enclosed you a statement of the account between Mr Ringold & I, as I have never had the pleasure of recieving a line from her since I sent the state, & fear she may not have recieved mine giving her an account that a balance remaind in my hands - which I shall be happy to implay in any way she will direct I indeed at any time, to do anything for her, or any of your particular friends you may wish to serve, with articles from this Country - -

The Duplicate bills are in the Package,

God Bless you -
