The prediction of St. Mathias' day that "if he find ice he'll break it, if he find none he'll make it," was fulfilled this year. Friday last was his day and there was no ice in this locality. Three days of cold, with a temperature during a portion of the time reported as low as 6 degrees amply supplied the deficiency.

Brandenburg and C. W. Hobbs on the life and character of the late Rev. Wm. A. Jesse B. Powder pleaded guilty to forgery, in the Circuit Court for Carroll county, on Saturday last, and was sentenced by Judge Thomas to four years imprisonment in the Maryland Penitentiary. As heretofore stated, there were twelve indictments against him for forgery. The indictment to which the plea of guilty was entered was for forging the name of Francis A. The marriage of Rev. Harry Heffner Price, president of a college at Tehuacana, Texas, to Miss Myra Mathis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. The freight wreck near Patapsco, which sent the fast mail train on Sunday through Hanover and Gettysburg, was the cause of a fatal accident a short distance from Granite station, a few miles from Gettysburg. The section men at work near Granite had no knowledge that the fast mail train was approaching them until it appeared in sight. They were on a handcar on the track, and jumped, but one of them, named John Griffey, slipped and fell directly in front of the engine drawing the passenger train and was ground to pieces. Griffey was 30 years old and unmarried.

A commission firm in Baltimore writes the SENTINEL that Western Maryland apples, of the "York Imperial and Ben Davis varieties, especially the former, have grown very much in favor with dealers and consumers, particularly in the present season. Some small lots which have reached the market this month, have come remarkably well preserved and have sold at fancy prices. One lot of York Imperials we received, bought from Westminster last week, sold at $6 00 per barrel, and the buyers are anxiously looking for well assorted parcels of this fruit."

Mr John Clayton Cassell, of Philadelphia, was approached near the City Hall in that place, one evening recently, by two men who claimed to be detectives and intended to place him under arrest. Upon his informing them that they had mistaken their man, one of them drew a gun and held him up, while the other went through his pockets and secured his money. They also took a valuable ring he was wearing and then ordered him to go on his way threatening to shoot him if he made an outcry. Thus far the police have failed to get any clue to the robbers. Mr. Cassell was formerly a compositor in this office.

In the case of W. E. B. Tipton against Amos R. Schultz, for trespass, which was on trial in the Circuit Court at the close of our report last week, the jury found for the plaintiff and assessed damages at $55. The case was a peculiar one. The plaintiff and his father, the late Thomas Tipton, were owners of adjoining lots in a cemetery at Hampstead and a monument stands partly on each of these lots. It was alleged that Thomas Tipton desired to have the name of one of his sisters cut on the stone and other members of the family employed Mr. Shultz to carry out that purpose; but the plaintiff objected and warned the defendant to desist from the work. But the warning was not heeded, and hence the suit against the latter, with the result stated.

The semi centennial of the organization of the Maryland Agricultural College will be celebrated at that institution, College Park, on Tuesday afternoon, 6th inst. The exercises will be opened with an invocation by Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, D. C., and, following remarks by President Silvester, addresses will be delivered by Governor Warfield; Prof. Ira Remsen, L. S. D., president of Johns Hopkins University; Prof. L. H. Bailey, dean of College of Agriculture, Cornell University, N. Y.; Secretary James Wilson, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and Prof. Francis A. Soper, M. S., principal Baltimore City College, a graduate of the M. A. C., class of 77. Rev. Dr. D. J. Stafford, of Washington, D. C., will pronounce the benediction. The editor of the SENTINEL acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to attend these exercises.

Mr. Edward Green, formerly of this city, met with a painful and serious accident at Atlantic City, Thursday of last week. Mr. Green, who is in the employ of the Atlantic City Electric Light Company, was standing on a tower wagon fixing the festoons of lights on the Board walk between Maryland and Virginia avenues when his helpers moved the wagon, which struck the walk with such violence that he was thrown to the ground and his right hand fractured, in two places, so badly that amputation was at first considered necessary, but at the last report had not been performed and the surgeons were endeavoring to save it. The injury, however, is of such a serious nature that, it is supposed, if saved the hand will be useless. The pain produced by the injury was intense, but Mr. Green has plenty of grit and bore it without flinching. As is generally known he is a son-in-law of the late Allen Friss of this city. Much sympathy is felt for him and his family in this serious affliction.

On the fourth page of this week's issue will be found lists of the grand officers, members of committees and representatives to the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Mechanics, which will meet at Pythian Castle, Gay street, Baltimore, on the 19th inst. With these lists pictures of the grand officers are also given.

Mrs. Rebecca Hoffman, near Tiffin, Ohio, in remitting susscription for the SENTINEL says: "I have taken the SENTINEL for 65 years. I am almost 84 years old. I am a daughter of the late Israel P. Haynes and was born and raised in Maryland. I am the only one left of ten children. Still have a number of relations living in Maryland. I came to Seneca county, Ohio, in 1840 and live on the same farm on which we then settled, two miles east of Tiffin. Please continue sending the paper." This is indeed an interesting record. May the venerable lady continue to enjoy good health and add many more years to her already good old age.

Mr. Wm. D. Lovell, of New Windsor, one of the deputy clerks of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, has a son, Master Leslie H. Lovell, aged ten years, who is exhibiting great natural ability as an artist. The SENTINEL has a number of pictures, drawn by him with an ordinary lead pencil, that are very striking and accurate. These drawings were enlarged from copies and are very true to the originals. Being larger than those there can, of course, be no suspicion of tracing. The pictures are actual drawings They include a lion, wolf, horse and jockey, a dog, group of cats, Mary and her little lamb, with a group of rabbits, a tiger &c. So well is the work done by the little lad that there can be no question about his possessing decided artistic talent, which, if cultivated and developed, holds out the promsie of his future success as an artist.

For the Sentinel.

A Farewell Service.

A farewell service, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Hann, the retiring Steward and Stewardess of the Alms House, was held on Sunday afternoon last, and although the weather was very inclement a large number was present. Addresses were made by Mr. Weeks, President of the Y. M. C. A. of the College; Mr. Curry, of the Seminary; Mr. Stevens, chairman of the Alms House committee, and Messrs. Mikesell, Beall and Marcus, of the committee. On behalf of the inmates and the committee Miss Mary Shellman presented Mr. and Mrs. Hann with a beautiful silver spoon, as an expression of appreciation of their many acts of kindness to them during their term of office. The services closed with singing "God be with you till we meet again," and the Mizpah benediction.

An Enthusiastic Denverite.

Mr. H. F. Caylor, formerly of this county, but for a good many years a resident of Denver, Col., in writing to renew his subscription to the SENTINEL says:

"We are having fine weather. Today (February 19) was really warm, but it is very dry and dusty and we need snow or rain very badly. Business generally is very good and we are looking forward to a good year. A great many buildings are in course of erection and many more are to be built during the year. The Y. M. C. A. raised in thirty days, by subscription, $200,000 for their new building. If you want to see the best city on earth you can do so right here at the foot of the Rockies. Come this way."

The Union Services.

The committee having charge of the arrangements for the proposed union services at Alumni Hall, on the afternoon of each Sunday in March, and in the Reformed, Lutheran and Methodist Protestant Churches, each, one Sunday night of the month, announces that the following speakers have been secured for these occasions:

Dr. Gibson's Lecture on Egypt.

The lecture of Rev. Dr. Frank M. Gibson, on Egypt, at the chapel of Ascension Episcopal Church, last Friday evening, was a surprise to most of the intelligent audience fortunate enough to hear it and to witness the fine views with which it was so admirably illustrated. The surprise was in the evidence afforded by the lecture of Dr. Gibson's thorough familiarity with Egyptian history and his great knowledge of the ruins of the vast temples and tombs which mark the era of the reign of the Pharaohs and older Egyptian dynasties. The views were from actual photographs and the lecture was a clear, lucid and most interesting description of the scenes depicted on the canvas by the stereopticon. It is more than probable that not a single individual present failed to learn something more of Egypt and the vast ruins of its ancient temples than was known before. Dr. Gibson is evidently a close and enthusiastic student of Egyptology, one of the really few in this country. We will not undertake to give even a faint outline of the substance of his lecture. It must be heard, in connection with the splendid views with which it was illustrated, to be properly appreciated. It ought to be repeated in an auditorium large enough to give the people of this city an opportunity to hear the best lecture, in our judgment, ever given here.

Eli Hull.

Mr. Eli Hull, a venerable and prominent retired farmer, died at his home in Cranberry Valley, about four o'clock, Tuesday morning, at the age of 82 years, 8 months, 9 days. His aged wife, who was only a few months his junior, died on Friday, 16th ult., after a brief illness, pneumonia, with which disease he was suffering at the time, but from which he then appeared to be recovering. He gradually failed, however, until his life had ebbed way and he followed the partner of his life to that "undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns." Mr. Hull was a most estimable gentlemen, a man of incorruptible character, upright and true in all the transactions of life. He was a devoted and influential member of Benjamin's Reformed Church for many years, and always faithful to every call of duty. Politically he was a Republican. He subscribed for and read the SENTINEL for more than sixty years, and never failed to pay his subscription in advance. His visits to the office for that purpose were occasions when, with few exceptions, he engaged in pleasant social conversation with the editor, who came to know him well and to esteem him very highly. Mr. Hull's only son died about twenty years ago, but he leaves the following grandchildren: Mrs. Irvin Hunter, Mrs. Tilden Shafer, Messrs. Jesse and Lewis Hull. His funeral took place at Benjamin's Reformed Church at 2 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, Rev. James H. Stonesifer, his pastor, officiating. Mr. James M. Stoner was funeral director.

Rev. Dr. David Wilson.

A telegram was received by Salem Lodge No. 60, I. O. O. F., of this city, on Wednesday, from Mr. D. Edgar Wilson, of Denver, Col., announcing the death of his father, Rev. Dr. David Wilson, in that city, of acute capillary bronchitis, on the morning of that day. Dr. Wilson was a retired chaplain of the United States Army. He was formerly an active clergyman of the Methodist Protestant Church, and 40 years ago was pastor of the churches of that denomination in this city and Uniontown, and subsequently built them forming the Pipe Creek Circuit. He also served many other prominent churches throughout the state, and was regarded as one of the leading members of the Maryland Annual Conference, with which he has always been connected, and of which he was once president.

He was one of the trustees of Western Maryland College. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and also an Odd Fellow, holding his membership in the latter in Salem Lodge No. 60, of this city, for many years, and until his death.

He was appointed a chaplain in the Army about 25 or 30 years ago and has been retired from active service about 15 years. He was about 80 years of age.

Dr. Wilson was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Anna Zollickoffer, daughter of Rev. Daniel Zollickoffer, of Uniontown, by whom he leaves one son (Mr. Zollickoffer Wilson, of Colorado) and two daughters, (Mrs. Annie Ord, wife of an officer of the Army, of Chevy Chase, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Joseph Byron, of Williamsport, Md.) His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Frances O. Smith, also of Uniontown. By her he leaves one daughter (Mrs. Joseph Hampson, now residing in Mexico) and one son (D. Edgar Wilson, a prominent lawyer, of Denver, Col.) His remains will be brought to Uniontown. A telegram was received by Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, this morning, from Mr. D. Edgar Wilson, announcing that the funeral will take place at Uniontown at 2 o'clock, P. M., on Thursday, 8th inst.

Arthur W. Campbell.

Mr. Arthur W. Campbell, who for the last five months had been a guest at the Hotel Westminster, this city, died very suddenly on Tuesday evening, at the Hotel Diehman, New Windsor. He had gone to Baltimore on Tuesday morning, expecting to return in the evening, but as he did not arrive when looked for his wife, who has been with him at the Westminster, became anxious concerning him and was about to make inquiry as to the cause of his delay, when a message came from New Windsor, announcing his death. He was stricken with paralysis on the train on which he was returning here, but his condition was not discovered until after the train had left for New Windsor. At that place he was removed to the station and physicians at once summoned. They found him unconscious and in an extremely critical state and had him removed to the Hotel Diehman, where he only lived half an hour.
