Bill be anxious to hear the ed & all our anxious hopes at fulfd — We think of this change with greatest delight you can conceive — you has little remaining ill effects from its last plunge — the thoughts of his emancipation has been a grand restorative to him — I have now great hope he may enjoy better health than he has known for many years — indeed ever — As for me they say I have health & spirits for a hundred & ten — of the latter I certainly have a blessed stock — & no bad share of the former tho; I don't admit I am absolutely robust — Its most likely I shall not write again settled. If the house does I have plenty of employ for the next 6 weeks — I hope my Dear Brother is in good health now — & Bill submit to be well managed, now; I assure you tho it sounds very pretty in the world — its not good in reality to let men have their own way — More of this when I am settled — In the mean time spare him of my affectionate good wishes for every good to him & have a share of your dear children from my Dear sister Yours truly & sincerely
