SIDE TWO

the cough was more troublesome last night attended with soreness and I have sent for the Doc.r to have if it is necessary for me to take any thing - I am easy now in a fine moisture and expectorate freely - I have been thus minute that my D.r Anxious Mother may have no thing to conjecture - please to tell Betty to send me some clean linen also a dimmety bed gown she will one in my chest = the Doc.r Mr. Scott and the Miss Reids are as kind as possible they desire their love to you and my D.r Sister, and bid me say they wish for the pleasure of your company here; not on my account believe me, for I trust in Heaven I shall not want nursing
