SIDE TWO

first boat, and when we kill the beef into send a quarter. I think it will be very fine he has been fed upon Rutabaga & meal, all winter, with clover hay. We have been very fortunate with the lambs & I believe there are 36. Mary is writing and will say no doubt every thing that can be said about our little pet, who is quite well and great company for us. It will be hard to say anything about your coming home till after Ann's visit but then we shall begin to make claims. Our neighbours are all well. Mrs. Maxey & Sally dined with us on Saturday, but returned in the Evng. as Mr. M. had got home he returned to Washington to day. Mrs. M. looks wretchedly & is in bad spirits. Mary will be at home I believe in a week or ten days. With affe. love to all around you

I am yr affe grandson.
