SIDE TWO

your good friend Mrs Murray is certainly better to day than she has been for some time. She had a more comfortable night, last night than she has had for a month, without the aid of Laudanum, Wine, Asafotida, Valerian or any other stimulant, all of which as usual there, have been most faithfully administered of late. I found her this Morg. with a very calm natural pulse, which is the first time I found it not excited by stimulants since return. Miss Mercer & Miss Sprigg saw her Evening & say she is like another being rest of our friends are now well I believe.

spent two nights at Cedar Park where are well & one at Lothian. Tomorrow all go to Saint James's - and perhaps to Lothian again - Don't be alarmed tho', I do not think I shall become desperate before your return & after that you know I shall be quiet again - I think you must be tired of this Scrawl now & Sarah just remin
