Mrd. Ann Chester

SIDE ONE

Balt. Friday Evening

My dear Grand Mr. from Galloway Chester

I have been very sorry to learn from James Letter just recd. of Aunt J's continued indisposition & of poor Rachel's fall — I hope however she has not been seriously injured.

We are all well here & our friends generally. Father will be unable to get to the Springs this Summer; his health however has improved without it. He has now gone as usual to the Mills. He requests me to enclose you fifty Dollars which you will receive herewith. He omitted giving us the order for articles wanted by Turner, we now send them by Gray viz: 50 lbs Loaf Sugar, 2 Bbls. Pork, 1 Hair Broom & Scrubbing brush & 12 yds. Bed ticking for yourself. For the Ridge 1 Bbl flour for Sam. 6 Bbls Lime, 1/2 plough shears No. 10. & the Leather be for both places, also a pair pantaloons for James.

I have opened this & taken out the enclosure — Mrs. Mackey is still very sick. I. C. Jr.
