Anna [illegible]

SIDE ONE

Probably from Annapolis where Her husband Samuel Ringgold was a member of Legislature

My own d. Aunt

It was with infinite pleasure I shook the hand of your good son, last night who is more improved than I could have imagined, he left us this morning which I was not a little sorry for as I had many questions to put, but he promised to meet us at your habitation when we could pay you the long intended visit rely on it myself and d. husband will experience as much pleasure as you and the rest of your good family possible can in seeing us, and we feel quite obliged to you
