Anna [illegible]

SIDE TWO

Mrs Nicholson indeed Mrs West looks almost as formidable I have not been out altho the snow melts fast there is a great deal but I think last monday was by far the worst day never was there a more violent wind joking apart we could hardly hear each other speak more like thunder then anything else & what think you of Mr Thompson Mrs Hewell Mrs Jenny Wd Harrison & Mr Dicky at church going into Mr Maynadier it was positively such weather I would not have a dog out I often did think & hope it would not reach Daniel Maynadier him where he was. his Father came from Pingrove on the Friday thro the bad weather fearing as he would have been he must have been keep there alone which in fine weather he would not like our mutual writes me she went out last Evening to see Sally Floyd her Boy is not well has a bad Cold, your man has just myst called I cant detain him all out separate Love & best wishes to everyone I. S
