SIDE ONE

I thought & hoped to have been with you see my dear friends before this — but the Evening after that Mrs Howard came I got a letter Mrs Murray was anxious I came to carry up the wife Steels to Belvoir she wanted meet us there which I did but Betty came her mama had the Ague & Fever & could not — & Mrs W. Maynadier who had long promised me a visit fixt on Wednesday to do it she came & Peggy with her & are now here & Mr Maynadier off Belvoir came today to dine with us & dear Betty not yet well enough to venture this dismal weather which has so greatly affected me I am notable to write them by great pain in head & limbs & every joint yet later my self a clear fire will make me well & allow me to accomplish my wished for visits & may I find my good friend Mrs Dingwold as much better as I shall think Mrs Howard, who I was glad to see with her
