SIDE ONE

Mrs Chester
West Moor

My dear Madam

It gives me real pleasure to hear of my dear Nancy's so rapid recovery and I sincerely hope you may never again experience as severe an affliction as her illness has caused you I am sorry you cannot persuade Fanny to leave home would she come up I am pretty certain unless prevented by any unforseen event that I should return home with her I expect our Carriage up to day and as soon as I can will certainly come to see you but I should be better pleased to have Fanny for my companion down my husband came home unexpectedly last Evening he said he did not feel
