My dear Madam

I congratulate you most heartily on your dear daughter's being better all your friends here are much rejoiced at it and I hope and trust my husband will bring still better accounts of her tomorrow give my affectionate love to her if you please my dear Madam and tell her if it is possible I intend to come and see her soon. I wish Fanny would come to Town Nancy will not stand in need of her assistance now to nurse her and I think it would be of great service to Fanny to spend a week or two in Town tell her I beg she will come and I will endeavour to return home with her. Sister Shaff has got down stairs but
