SIDE TWO

what dose he say about the Hessian Fly. we are all ruined here, every Field is amazingly injured. some do not expect to get back their Seed. I believe we must return to Tobacco and the Ridge. as we have no House on our Farm here, our little Dose at Rose Hill is at length compleated except the Chimneys. which could not be done for the want of Lime and our people too busy at the Dam to burn a Kill that your Brother has had sett some Months. but we shall I hope be free after Saturday. I fear it will be impossible for you to read the above I have not been two minuts about it, as my morning has been taken up with little Sophia who has put me all in a tumble she is very much afflicted with the Colick and has the thrush my best Love to Mrs G and Dr little Mary your Brother Mr G and your two Daughters. believe me with the truest affection your very sincere Friend and Sister —

H M G —

I have again wrote to your Uncle. I hope he will now pay us a Sum of Money. which you know is very necessary on going to an entire new place, and Building so large a Mill beside. we are told Tobacco bears a very high price with you. he has for two years told us of selling his Land but I hope he will no longer put us off with that expectation. when that is a kind of property that seems not to sell and all others bear so high a price
