n.d. Anne [Galloway] Chester [illegible]

SIDE ONE

My Dear Aunt

When I came from your House on Friday I found Harry extremely unwell with a Dysentary — fortunately the symptoms have not been violent and he is now getting better tho' much reduced and very weak — I am therefore under the necessity of relinquishing the pleasure of seeing you this Evening — I hope My Dear Cousin has continued to mend since I left her — Mr H. and my Brother join me in every wish for your health and happiness —

Affectionately Yours

Mary Hallo

Sunday Morning

My D. Friend.

Your Man gives such a delight[illegible] an account of you — that I must write a line to congratulate you — he tells me you are well. & Fanny quite brave — I hope it may continue to you both — We are well here. at least my Aunt is tolerably so — rides out every day —

Mrs Murray has been indisposed, but is better again — Mrs Steele, her daughters & Miss Lloyd gone to York Springs. Mr Lloyd & Ed. to Bath. Mrs Ld. & the younger folks at her brothers just now. Late letters from Mrs Rush all well — My Aunt joins in love & good wishes with yrs
