SIDE TWO

point of unloading his over with the a strong South wind and blew him off so I think we much to be thankful for — arrived yesterday and we moved home Mr Ingham's this morning — I wish has been quite a treasure to us in moving and piling wood &c and we now and him home sooner than we intended that he may be Rachel be fore you go to B — The Girls are very busy helping me and making the shirts of their dresses to put to a body that a mantumaker is making for them — and now my dear Aunt I have told you all about us —

I am anxious to hear how Cousin Fanny is treating that she is better and that she is more strong and that you will all both go to Baltimore and spend a pleasanter winter than she anticipates —

Is Chase to stay with you or has she gone to Lathrop — I am so sleepy I must say good night as I must write to Nichols —

Give my love in which Mr M and the Girls join to Cousin Fanny the Dr and Chase and believe me as ever your truly attached and affectn
