SIDE ONE

My Dear Sister I wrote you last Week by the post and have not a line from you since friday week but was truly pleased to hear this Morning Sammy was at last at home and I this moment saw him for the first time since I saw you a long Week this and he tells me he left Nancy at Annapolis and that she was well which was truly pleasing to us all Sam and his family go on thursday or friday Maria has not been well owing to fatigue I stood with her on friday Night as she began the old Subject as soon as I got home half jest half earnest vowed I would go if she said another word my Heart is heavy this Night Nancy is well was not so last Week I came to her on Saturday and shall stay this Week Sam tells me Jonny will be here on Sunday or Monday which will carry me home for some days Jenck got home also last Night Mr Lee still here she goes now shortly Sam tells me my Brother looks like a little Jim he is so fat I long to see him once I should have trembled to think I should be near two years without seeing him indeed I should have thought it impossible to have submitted to it merciful are the Heart strikes we poor Mortals have I feel as if I can endure at Marriage parting the lovely little Cadwalader grows every our I know Jay the big fellow dear little Susan grows as fast and is as engaging she will not let any one take her from me. Kisses me and hugs me &

12½

Mrs Chester
Annapolis
Mail