SIDE TWO

asked her for Aunt Creston she pointed to the door said gone. I am truly happy your Son is safe from the fever I hope this weather will stop it entirely Sam says James he hears is to be married to Miss Hollingsworth I told him I was not so or do I believe it from what you told me I hope you will get to Annapolis Pont tells me he thinks you will do so my heart seems hard pushed not to join you there but fate ordains it otherwise I wrote you Sally was gone I suppose the girl you mentioned for Maria would not come here lofty and you called her I have had two offered but fear they wont do I must try one as I am badly off to have no one but Backward Rachel to be with me Nancy offered to lodge in my room but she laughs often and we are two old to do any good to each other add to that she has acted so beyond all bounds since you left me I shall keep her at a distance as long as she stays What a world is this may I do right and not live to be very old is my prayer give my tender love to my Dear Cousins and ask around your if my Brother is with you tell him I hope he will bring the Monkey Mr Eagle wrote me by the last he had for me was for Mr Richard Tilghman to send on my house rent due at this time pray write me shortly Adieu Your Affectionate
